Dear Zoning, Neighborhoods & Development Committee,

Yes, please secure the permanent historical designation for the South Superior Street Puddles Cottages.

There exists no better visual of the concept of "company town" in this part of the country as we see in this row of Puddlers. Therefore, it eloquently secures a part of history for Milwaukee and the nation.

Like the "painted ladies" row of houses so often depicted as representative of San Francisco, this accumulation of Puddler cottages represents how cities were made in the emerging industrial era. It deserves historical designation.

A great favor would be accorded should this designation be granted.

Sincerely,
David Endres
