Subject: Objection to Apys Cars Inc license application
Importance: High

Hi Jessica,

We do object to the Apys Cars Inc license application referenced within based upon the significant amount of past due fees they owe the City. Attached are documents I forwarded to the License Committee back in August 2018 prior to their RST expiration date of 9/6/2018.

The first email attachment includes the last letter sent by Kohn Law Firm on our behalf to Apys Cars Inc, along with a summary of their discussion with their attorney (at that time) related to a proposed payment plan, which they did not move forward with.

The second email attachment was received from Kohn Law Firm today referencing total outstanding fees of $70,500.73 owed, which includes a judgement on file for $20,258.30.

Could you please inform us when this is scheduled to go to the Licenses Committee? I'd like to request that Kohn Law Firm attend that meeting along with either myself or Peter in regard to our objection based on the information within.

Let me know if you have any questions or need anything else. Thank you.

We'll add your objection to the file in case a renewal application is filed, but we haven't processed one yet. Their license expired on 1/15.

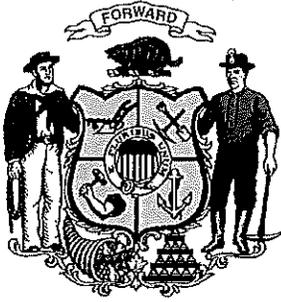

I do see that Apys Cars Inc has filed a new application for the location, so I'm not sure if they're intending to take over the area. Please let us know if you have any objections to the new application.

Tom,

Total outstanding is just a shade under $70K. This reflects the $1,000 in payments made from the February balance, but there is also additional post judgment interest that has accrued on the judgment file (our file 867859, Case 17CV6049, current balance of $20,449.54). The file we have a stipulation on (W003304, Case #20SC14542.) now has a balance of $3,720.12.

The vast majority of the remaining amount (roughly 45K) will be included in the new lawsuit, we just have a couple of entity issues to resolve (Cars Inc. vs Apys on the invoices).

Hi Tom,

To update from my February 1, email see below.

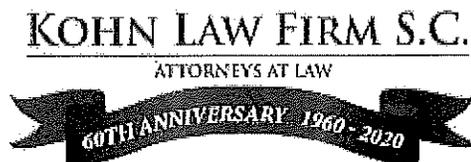

On the file we have a stipulation on (Our file #W003304, Case #20SC14542), Apy's is current on their stipulation. They have made their February and March payments of $500 each and their next payment is due April 26, 2021.

Unfortunately, that is where the good news ends. I have made half a dozen attempts to reach Apy's counsel regarding the remaining large balance and haven't even received the courtesy of a return call or email. They are either purposely ignoring me or Apy's counsel is unable to reach Apy's. As such we will be commencing a lawsuit on the remaining files. I would not recommend approving their application absent a payment agreement on the remaining balance that includes a large down payment.

If you have any other questions, let me know.

Tom

Total outstanding is $70,500.73 as we have received some additional files since 2018. Of that balance there is a judgment on file for $20,258.30 (our file 867859, Case 17CV6049). Recently we also set up a court approved stipulated payment plan on a small portion of the balance (roughly $4500) stemming from our file W003304 (Case #20SC14542.) Apys made their first $500 payment towards that matter a few days ago on January 27th.

Apys never followed through on the payment plan discussed below in 2018. However they do have new counsel now that I have historically had a good working relationship with. I had planned to reach out to their new counsel to see what/if any their plan was to tackle the remaining 65K. We had held off on suing any additional files (and expending costs) as we hadn't had much luck collecting on the 2017 judgment as Apy's Cars Inc. has stonewalled any effort at obtaining their financial documents (and contempt motions in Milwaukee County are worthless).

I would certainly advise objecting to a license, absent either payment in full or at least a large down payment plus a written agreement to pay the remaining balance. If you have further questions let me know.

Tom,

To follow up on our conversation, we will counter at $10K immediately, $2.5K if/when they get their license back and then $1,500 per month.

I have attached the last letter we sent to Apy's. They were ordered by the Court to appear at a supplemental hearing on September 25, 2018. The purpose of said hearing is for the debtor to provide financial information to the creditor to see what assets the debtor has to satisfy the debt. As I indicated, Apy's ignored the Order of the court and chose not to show up. (It is worth noting that Diane Blas was personally served to appear at the supplemental). As they failed to appear, our next step is usually to file a motion with the Court to hold Apy's in contempt of court. A finding of contempt could lead to fines or a bench warrant issued for Diane/Jamie Blas.

Lastly, I'd note that if we are able to get Apy's on an acceptable payment plan and the license is renewed, I would make the license contingent on them keeping their payment plan and it would be revoked if they break the plan.

Tom and/or Danielle,

We've been contacted by Apy's attorney, Frank Capria, who contacted my office a few minutes ago. Apparently Apy's is up again tomorrow in front of the licensing committee?

Long story short, Apy's is offering a payment plan on the full 67K outstanding. They are offering to walk in $10,000 today in certified funds in exchange for a letter from us stating that they have a payment plan in place. They presumably want to use letter in exchange for getting their license back. They would then pay $2,500 if the license is given back and then $500 per month until paid. This would take over 9 years to pay off.

Please advise on how you would like us to respond. The $10,000 down is a good start, but I think we need more than $500 per month. It is worth noting that Apy's has consistently told us "they have no money" so it is unclear where these funds are coming from. They have also refused to provide any financials or documentation and they failed to appear at a supplemental hearing on September 2.5. Due to that failure we are considering filing a motion for contempt of court. I would suggest something around $1,200-$1,500 per month after the $10K and 2.5K payments. Let us know.

Dear Tom;

Good morning ☺

I assist our Attorney Johnson with regard to our Municipal files, and would like to have a clear understanding before moving forward on "Apys Cars, Inc". We currently show $36,486.72 due overall. Jaime Blas contacted our office this morning with an offer of $1,000.00 down and $500/month- I have explained clearly to him that we require a financial statement prior to negotiations.

At this point, I'd like to have an idea what DPW is looking for here- what kind of parameters are you willing to discuss on this balance?

Thank you, for your time.

DPW-Parking Services is presenting the information below for the Licenses Committee's consideration pending the renewal of Apys Cars' Recycling, Salvaging or Towing Premises license.

Apys Cars, owned by Jamie and Diana Blas, has been operating since December 2015, which is the date of the first monthly billing by the City of Milwaukee for private towing service fees, and was issued their current Recycling, Salvaging or Towing Premises license on 9/7/16.

Per Wisconsin State Statute 349.13, the towing service fee of $30 assessed to each vehicle owner shall be remitted to the municipality. All service fees collected by a towing service may be aggregated and forwarded together, on a monthly basis, to each applicable municipality.

Thirty-one (31) invoices have been issued since December 2015, totaling $52,602.31. The first five (5) invoices were paid in a timely manner, totaling $7,060, with the last payment made posted on June 2, 2016, made via cash. Since then, the remaining twenty-six (26) invoices dated July 15, 2016 through July 19, 2018, have not been paid. On September 30, 2017, twelve (12) invoices totaling $19,110 were sent to Kohn Law Office for collection (File 901472-901483). Pursuant to the License Committee's decision to hold Apys Cars' license at their July 17, 2018 meeting, discussions between Jamie Blas, Tom Woznick and Kohn Law Firm resulted in Mr. Blas' refusal to pay or set up a payment plan. In order to conform to DPW-Parking's accounts receivable policy and to set a legal groundwork, the remaining fourteen (14) outstanding invoices totaling $26,432.31 were forwarded to Kohn Law Firm (File 939560). Per an email dated August 1, 2018 from Kohn Law Firm, the total amount Kohn will be referring as a civil judgment is $63,273.67, which includes interest. This amount includes $17,125 of service fees which were forwarded to Kohn Law Office, the details of which are referenced directly below.

Prior to obtaining the license for Apys Cars, the same individuals operated under Cars Inc. performing private tows that required compliance with the same State statute from September, 2015 to August, 2016. During that time seven (7) invoices were issued for private tows to Cars Inc. totaling $17,125. No payments were made on those invoices. On November 30, 2016, these invoices were sent to Kohn Law Office for collection (File T867859).

Please see the attached spreadsheet detailing the outstanding invoices referenced within.

Mr. Blas, during his testimony at the July 18, 2018 Licenses Committee meeting, requested information on two items. The first item was specific to drop fees when performed by a towing service. A private towing service is able to provide documentation confirming a vehicle was dropped, and upon receipt of confirmation of a drop, the service fee is reduced to $15. The second item was specific to when towed vehicles are not claimed by the vehicle owner. I provided Mr. Blas with the attached "Towing Service Fee Notification" which was sent to all Milwaukee towing operators towing from private property, dated September 21, 2015, which states that the City will not require remittance of a service fee for authorized tows not claimed by the owner. The notification also provides details of what a towing operator must provide the City of Milwaukee Tow Lot in order to avoid being billed.

Please feel free to contact me via email or ext. 3635.
