5634 West Oklahoma Avenue, #203
Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53219

Dear Hiring Authority:

Thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to review my resume. I would like to explore the possibility of joining your organization, and am confident that I possess qualifications worthy of your consideration.

At this time in my career, I am looking for a position which will provide professional challenges, as well as the opportunity for continued growth. I am a self-motivated individual, and feel my abilities and past experiences will enable me to make a direct contribution to your organization. I excel at motivational speaking and facilitating seminars, workshops and training within the field of human services, specifically related to fatherhood, healthy relationships, personal responsibility, and promoting community awareness regarding the value of involved fathers. My extensive background in counseling and case management will prove invaluable in providing outstanding services.

I am comfortable in a decision-making capacity, and work well independently or as part of a team effort. I have demonstrated abilities in collaborating with individuals at all levels and from a wide range of socioeconomic backgrounds. I believe in empowering individuals to assume responsibility, and to provide coaching and support to help them achieve positive outcomes. In addition, I am able to analyze problems, recommend and implement solutions. I am determined to enter into a position where my energy and talents will be best utilized, and am confident that I will be able to make an immediate and position contribution to your team, if granted the opportunity.

Once again, thank you for your time. I look forward to a personal interview to discuss your needs and my potential at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Alphonso L. Pettis
