LICENSE PREMISE

Heaney, Tyler D 022558

07/11/2020

This report is written by PO Tyler HEANEY, assigned to District 3, Late Shift.

On Saturday July 11, 2020 at 2:47 AM, P.O. Z. FITZPATRICK and I (squad 3369) were dispatched to a Shots Fired / Shotspotter at 4950 W. Lisbon Ave (Clark Gas Station) in the City and County of Milwaukee. We were dispatched to assist squad 3231 (PO CRUZ and PO GIFFORD) who heard the shots fired from the District 3 police station at 2333 N. 49th st.

Upon our arrival we were made aware of the multiple different casings that were recovered from the incident. The casings were as follow:

5 - spent Brass 5.7x28 FNB .22 hollow point

10 - spent Brass GFL 9mm Luger

6 - spent Brass .45 Federal Auto

There was also a black Iphone cell phone that was face up on the ground in the middle of the parking lot. It was directly placed in the middle of the 4 gas pumps in the gas station lot.

It should be noted that we arrived to an empty parking lot. All parties fled the scene after the shots were fired.

We checked the surrounding buildings, and employee vehicles (parked on Northeast corner of parking lot) for anything that may have been struck by the gunfire, however we were unable to locate anything.

I spoke with the gas station clerk who was present during the incident. He identified himself as GURPREET SINGH (02/06/89). SINGH stated that he heard the shots and got down. SINGH stated that he did not know who was doing the shooting, however stated that I was able to access the video surveillance that the gas station had.

I then checked the Gas station video surveillance. I observed a large crowd which was gathered just north of pump 1 on the east side of the lot. It appeared that there were a couple different arguments happening based on the body language of the individuals. Multiple vehicles were involved, however it is difficult to tell make and model of the vehicles due to the distance from the camera.

I observed an unknown dark colored sedan vehicle that was parked in the far east part of the lot near the gas station car wash. At approximately 3:04 AM, an unknown individual was observed entering the drivers side of the listed vehicle. The vehicle is seen reversing from the parking lot, and slowly exiting out of the east exit. While slowly exiting, there are multiple muzzle flashes that come from the passenger side of the vehicle towards the crowd that was gathered at pump 1.

Then as the dark colored vehicle was exiting the gas station lot, I observed a black male wearing a blue polo style short sleeve shirt, dark colored jeans, and blue and white shoes fire rounds in the direction of the unknown vehicle, who was simultaneously firing rounds in an unknown direction. The subject in the blue shirt was seen running westbound in the parking lot while firing shots. While doing so, I observed a cell phone drop out of the listed subjects pocket and fall directly in between all 4 pumps, which was recovered at the scene. There was also another black male subject wearing a black t-shirt, white pants, and dark colored shoes, who was also seen firing rounds from a handgun in an unknown direction.

While investigating the shotspotter complaint, a black male subject who was later identified as Brandon CRAWFORD (b/m, 10/31/93) approached officers on scene stating that he had left his cell phone at the gas station. CRAWFORD stated that he dropped to the ground when he heard gunshots and he dropped his cell phone. It should be noted that CRAWFORD matched the description of the shooter seen in surveillance video, who also dropped a cell phone while firing the rounds. CRAWFORD was still wearing a blue polo style shirt, dark colored jeans and blue and white shoes when asking officers on scene for his phone. CRAWFORD was arrested and transported to District 3 for further processing.

CRAWFORD stated that he did not wish to make a statement regarding this incident.

The casings were placed on inventory as evidence regarding this incident. (MPD Inv #20024069) It should be noted that CRAWFORD's cell phone that was left on scene was photographed as evidence #16, but was subsequently released to CRAWFORD upon his release from District 3.

This case is pending DA review.
