LICENSED PREMISE REPORT

Zelinski, Tyler J 031980

04/23/2023

All owners and workers of establishment were cooperative with police investigation

This report is written by Police Officer Tyler ZELINSKI, District 5 Early Power Shift, Squad 5234 with Police Officer Michael WAGNER.

On April 17th, 2023, at the time of 11:08AM, P.O. WAGNER and I were dispatched to the address of 2737 N Martin L King Jr Dr, in the City and County of Milwaukee, WI for an Entry complaint.

Upon arrival I was met with the business owner, Baboonie TATUM (B/F 09-13-1976). TATUM owns the business 'Rise and Grind'.

TATUM advised that multiple TV's, Vitamix machines (blenders), miscellaneous tools, an approximate 2 by 2 foot safe, a Clover POS system (monitor, Ipad screen, handheld), and two stand up speakers still in the box were stolen. At this time TATUM did not know exact costs of the stolen property.

TATUM advised that she has insurance through Acuity insurance.

TATUM said the last time she observed the business still intact with its property was on Friday, but that one of her workers was the one who advised of an open door to the business. This worker arrived on scene and was identified as Eanica L. MITCHELL (B/F 11-06-1988). MITCHELL stated that at the time of 12:00PM, she was going to her residence (which is in the apartments above the business), she did not see that the door to the business was open. At the time of 4:00PM she was in the private garage in the rear of the business and the door to the business was propped open. MITCHELL stated she went to see why the door was open, peaked inside the business and stated out loud "if anybody is in here to come out because I am locking the door." MITCHELL stated she was concerned and did not want to stay in the area but did not look close enough within the business to observe if the objects were gone at that time.

The business does have active security cameras within the building that would have captured the incident, but TATUM does not have access to the cameras at the moment. TATUM stated when she gets access, she will review the cameras and be in contact regarding the video.

At this time there are no suspects identified in the case. A canvas of the area, which included MITCHELL, was inconclusive due to the entry point of the business being through a private garage of the business and no cameras are accessible for the garage or the entryway into the garage unit.

End of report.
