Ald. Dudzik said that there have been multiple warning letters issued over the last previous years and suggested that a change of capacity to 100 may serve to address the club's issues and police report.

Ald. Hamilton was present and suggested that a warning letter be issued based on efforts of the licensee to address issues of the area and at the club. He added that he believed a change of capacity would not have a significant impact at the club to address issues of the area and the club.

*Ald. Dudzik moved approval and to restrict the capacity of the facility to 100.
