Wallich, Rebecca J 022637

05/29/2020

This report is written by Police Officer Rebecca Wallich, assigned to District 7, Late Power Shift and Squad 7468.

On Thursday, May 28, 2020 at approximately 1:21AM, my partner PO Andrew Wilkiewicz and I responded to 6222 W Fond Du Lac Ave in the City and County of Milwaukee regarding the tavern being open and with a large crowd.

Upon arrival Officer Wilkiewicz and I observed the tavern, Eve Dining (6222 W Fond Du Lac Ave), to be open and several people exiting the tavern as well as people inside the tavern. There were vehicles parked up and down West Fond Du Lac Ave on both sides. Officer Wilkiewicz and I staged down the street for another squad car before we entered the tavern due to the volume of patrons. As we waited we observed several patron exit the tavern and go to their vehicles. We also observed the patrons dancing in the street, blocking traffic, hanging outside their vehicles and speeding up and down Fond Du Lac Ave. I observed only one security guard attempting to move the patrons along but no one was paying attention.

Squad 7431 arrived on scene and at that time we entered the tavern. As we entered we made contact with the owner Thomas Holmes (B/M, 08/19/57). I asked Holmes why he was open. Holmes stated he was open because there is no order enforcing him to be closed. Holmes stated that he has the right to be open and he spoke to his lawyer. Officer Wilkiewicz and I informed Holmes that he is not allowed to be open because his business is in the city limits of Milwaukee and the City of Milwaukee still has an order that has not expired nor been changed to allow bars or restaurants to be open as normal business. Holmes did not believe the information we were telling him. Officer Wilkiewicz and I left the tavern and returned after printing the current order for Holmes.

Holmes was in violation of mostly every requirement. Our observation of the tavern was he was operating business as normal, there was no practicing social distancing, no sanitation stations, barely anyone was wearing masks and there were between 50-80 patrons inside the tavern.

Holmes stated that earlier in the day he made several phone calls to multiple district stations asking them if he was allowed to open. Per Holmes he stated he was told by the four districts that he contacted that he was allowed to be open. Holmes did not contact the District his business is located in. Holmes was also the only tavern open in District Seven. Holmes stated he was given incorrect information but kept stating that other bars are open and doesn't understand why he can't be open if they are open. Holmes stated he has documentation stating documentation to whom he spoke with at the multiple districts he contacted to see if he could open. Holmes asked if I could come back in the evening of 05/28/2020 to see his documentation.

At this time Holmes was informed that this incident would be documented and a License Premise Report would be written.

On 05/28/2020 at approximately 7:40PM, Officer Scaife and I met with Holmes at his business, Eve Dining. I first asked Holmes if he looked over the current order we provided him with and he stated he did. I asked Holmes if he now understands that there is an order stating he cannot be open for normal business and there are certain restrictions. Homles stated he does understand. Holmes was unable to provide me with the Officer's name that told him he was allowed to be open but stated again that the Officer misinformed him and the believed he was allowed to be open. Holmes was very adamant I state this in the report. I informed Holmes that again he should not open his tavern until the new order is out which states he can open. Homles stated he understands.

INITIAL INVESTIGATION

This report is written by Police Officer Andrew WILKIEWICZ, assigned to District 7, Late Power Shift.

conducted a tavern check at 6222 W. Fond Du Lac Ave., Eve Fine Dining.

At the time of this tavern check, the City of Milwaukee was on phase 4 of re-opening from the Corona-virus pandemic. Phase 4 allowed taverns to open up at 50% capacity.

Eve Fine Dining has a maximum capacity of 99 people, which would allow a maximum of 50 patrons at this time. Upon entering the tavern, I observed far more than 50 people inside the tavern as I begin to speak with the owner, Thomas J. HOLMES (B/M, 8/19/57). I asked HOLMES to walk outside with me to talk because the music inside the tavern was loud. As I walked outside with HOLMES, I asked the security guard how many people were inside the establishment. When I asked the security guard this, HOLMES attempted to "coach" the security guard to tell me that there were 50 people in the bar, however, the security guard responded with "94." While speaking to HOLMES outside, the security guard approached HOLMES and I and stated that he made a mistake about the number of people that were in the bar and stated that there were 74 people inside the bar.

HOLMES was advised that he was only permitted to have a maximum of 50 people inside the bar.

No citation was issued.

Upon arrival I spoke with Marisol M RHODEN who stated she came up to Eve's Ultra Lounge tonight around 1:00am. RHODEN stated she was with her mother Mary Jane GUITERREZE and they were meeting her sister. She states while they were back there everything was fine and they were having a good time. She states her mother and her came back out front and sat at a table in the bar area. RHODEN states she needed to use the bathroom and asked her mother GUITERREZE to watch her purse. She states after she returned from the bathroom her purse was missing from the table. She asked GUITERREZE what happened to her purse and she stated I don't know. RHODEN asked the owner Thomas J HOLMES if he could check the surveillance camera's to see who took her purse. He advised her he could do that in the morning, RHODEN states she had approximately $1300 in US Currency in her purse along with her WI DL, Social Security Card and other personal belongings. She described her purse as a Black with Crocodile leather w/handle and stated it was a bigger purse and not a wallet sized purse.

I asked RHODEN if her sister was still at the location so I could speak with her and she stated while she was in the bathroom her sister left the location. She further stated GUITERREZE mentioned her sister was a shady person. She could not say if her sister is the one who took the purse.

I spoke with HOLMES and he stated everything was fine tonight until RHODEN purse was taken. He states RHODEN and GUITERREZE are regulars along with RHODEN sister who is confined to a wheelchair. He states they were in the back lounge tonight and also were sitting at a table in the bar area. He states RHODEN sister left the location in a hurry tonight and forgot to pay her bar tab. He states when she left, she was picked up by her boyfriend. He stated he would check the cameras in the morning to see if they showed if anybody taking her purse.

I advised HOLMES I would return on December 3, 2020 to check the videos.
