

An aerial photograph of the Aurora St. Luke's Medical Center, showing a complex of multi-story buildings and parking lots. The Knisely Building is the central focus, a large, multi-story structure with a prominent curved facade. The surrounding area includes other hospital buildings, parking lots filled with cars, and some greenery. The image is overlaid with white text.

Aurora St. Luke's Medical Center
Knisely Building
August 23, 2011

Campus Influence

- Precast & Like Materials
- Metal Panel
- Brick
- Horizontal Ribbon Window's

Design Options

- Campus Integrated Design
- Façade Replacement

50 feet 15 m

Campus Integrated Facade

Glass Fiber Reinforced
Concrete (GFRC) panel
Facade
Metal Panel Projection
Glass to match existing campus
Brick stair tower to match existing campus

