Hello Common Council Members,

My name is Wyatt Tinder - I'm a member of the NEWaukee team here in the city and I'm a resident in Milwaukee's 5th District (3045 N 77th St, Milwaukee, WI 53222).

I'm also a huge supporter of FPC Live's new music venues downtown.

Wanted to make sure you all saw the awesome news this week that FPC Live announced labor agreements with the Milwaukee Building & Construction Trades Council and Milwaukee Area Service and Hospitality Workers Union.

- FPC Live reaches agreements with labor organizations for \$50M project
- FPC Live music venues; workforce commitments to Milwaukee labor
- FPC Live announces labor and workforce agreements for Deer District venue project
- FPC Live reaches agreement for \$50M live entertainment venues in Deer District
- Biggest concert season in over 15 years wraps up at American Family Insurance Amphiteater and BMO Harris Pavilion

Look -- there's a lot of noise from Craig Peterson's and The Rave's group (who, by the way, is using some emotional, non-factual language with racist overtones like, 'this will bring more crime to downtown Milwaukee'), but I don't think that they represent the vast majority of Milwaukeeans who are super excited about having more music and more local, union, family-supporting jobs in the city, which benefits us all.

Thank you for your time,
Wyatt Tinder
