To Whom It May Concern, I am writing to report an incident involving my vehicle, which was parked at the Brown Deer Shopping Mall parking lot when a shooting occurred, resulting in a fatality. The police towed my car without notifying me, and upon retrieval at the Milwaukee tow lot on 7/16/2025, I discovered that it had been severely damaged to extract bullets. The officer on duty acknowledged that the damage was caused by their actions. As my car was not insured, having recently purchased it, this incident has caused significant inconvenience to me and my family. Furthermore, despite being informed that there would be no fees to retrieve my vehicle, I was charged $50. I am submitting this claim, as suggested by the officer and tow lot manager, to seek compensation for the repairs. As a Milwaukee resident, I am distressed by the frequency of such incidents in our city. I have attached supporting documentation, including photographs, estimates, and the officer's name. While I was willing to cooperate with the investigation, I am dismayed by the extent of the damage caused to my vehicle.

5 teens shot, 1 dead in Milwaukee strip mall shooting

Police say the 19-year-old died at the scene. A 14-year-old, a 15-year-old, and two 16-year-olds sustained non-fatal injuries.

Family identified the 19-year-old as Bre'nee Veasley. She was a nursing student at Lakeland University with a 4.0 GPA. "My daughter was beautiful, intelligent, and a true light for our family. We've taken a major loss. She was driven, family-oriented, and had so much ahead of her. No mother should have to endure what I'm going through right now. I'm calling for justice—for Bre and for every child taken too soon. We need the violence to stop. No more families should have to feel this pain," her mother tells 12 News.

On July 16, family identified one of the 16-year-old victims as Kingston Liphford. According to a GoFundMe, Liphford died from his injuries on July 4. You can donate here to help raise money for funeral costs.
