

MEMORANDUM

To: Public Safety Committee
From: Jeff Osterman, Legislative Reference Bureau
Date: February 14, 2007
Subject: POLICE OFFICER VACANCIES

+++++

According to DOA-Budget and Management Division, the average number of police officer vacancies in 2006 was 231. The average number of new vacancies per pay period was approximately 4.5.

For the end of 2006, the number of new vacancies per period was as follows:

- PP 19 - 1
- PP 20 - 0
- PP 21 - no data (new recruit class started)
- PP 22 - 7
- PP 23 - 7
- PP 24 - 8
- PP 25 - 6
- PP 26 - no data (new recruit class started)

The most recently reported number of vacancies was 199 (Pay Period 1 of 2007).