Service Issues

Customer's Statement of the Problem:

I was in Cab 81 with a Richard R Laasiri with 3 other passengers on July 9th, 2011 at approximately 1:00am. The moment we got in the cab he yelled at us to shut up and that he had the right to refuse service. He was driving recklessly through the summerfest traffic and almost got in an accident twice. He was swerving in and out of lanes, screaming and swearing at other drivers. We were in fear for our lives. When we asked him to please calm down he put his hand in one of the passengers faces and told her to shut up and he would pull over and kick us out. After a few more blocks he pulled over and told us to get the hell out. He got physical with one of the passengers and tried to yank her out by her arm. We were not being obnoxious whatsoever, we were just talking amongst each other. Once we got into a new cab, we told the driver our story and he said how there have been problems before with this particular driver. He should NOT have a license and be treating PAYING customers like this. I have 4 other witnesses that can testify to this behavior. I have never in my lifetime been treated with such little respect.

Desired Settlement:

This driver should have his license revoked. No one should EVER be treated like this. He is a threat towards people's safety and the reputation of the company.

To: City of Milwaukee

This driver was kicked out from driving for American United Taxicab because of his terrible treatment towards customers. Apparently he is doing the same at Yellow Cab.

The City needs to revoke his license to drive a taxicab before he hurts someone.
