 - (i) Except for new hires, the EACA Effective Date shall be at the end of the business day on October 31 of each Plan Year or the end of the following business day if October 31 does not fall on a business day.
 - (ii) For new hires, the EACA Effective Date shall be no less than thirty days after the earlier of either (a) the new hire's new employee orientation; or (b) mailing of an enrollment packet or similar materials to the new employee by the Provider, both of which shall provide documentation that includes EACA notice as described more fully below.

- (iii) Current employees and new hires shall become Covered Employees subject to the EACA only if the Employee fails to make an election during the Enrollment Period.
- (2) Uniformity. The same Default Percentage will be withheld as Default Deferrals and the same Default Annual Percentage Increase shall be applied to all Covered Employees.
- (3) EACA Notice.
- (i) Deemed reasonable notice. The Administrator is deemed to have provided timely notice if the Administrator provides each Covered Employee a comprehensive notice of the Covered Employee's rights and obligations under the EACA, written in a manner reasonably calculated to be understood by the average person, at least thirty (30) days and not more than ninety (90) days prior to Covered Employee's EACA Effective Date.
 - (ii) The notice shall accurately describe: (A) the amount of Default Deferrals that will be made on the Covered Employee's behalf in the absence of an Affirmative Election; (B) the Covered Employee's right to elect to have no Deferrals made on his or her behalf or to have a different amount of Deferrals made; (C) that the Covered Employee's Default Deferrals will be invested in the Default Investment in the absence of the Covered Employee's investment instructions; (D) the Covered Employee's right to elect investments other than the Default Investment; (E) the amount of Default Annual Percentage Increase that will apply in the absence of an Affirmative Election; (F) the Covered Employee's right to elect to have no Default Annual Percentage Increase made on his or her behalf or to have a different percentage increase made; and (G) the Covered Employee's right to request a refund of Default Deferrals according to the procedures and within the time period following the Covered Employee's EACA Effective Date as specified further herein and in any applicable Plan Operating Procedures.
- (4) EACA Operation. After the close of business on the EACA Effective Date for any Covered Employee, the following shall occur:
- (i) The Covered Employee shall be automatically enrolled in the Plan, whereby the Default Percentage of the Covered Employee's Compensation shall be contributed to the Covered Employee's newly-created Participant Account;
 - (ii) Upon election by the Administrator and notice to the Provider, the Covered Employee's Default Percentage shall be automatically increased each Plan Year according to the Default Annual Percentage Increase, unless a Participant has a Deferral greater than the Default Percentage; and/or
 - (iii) The Covered Employee's Default Deferrals shall be automatically allocated on the Covered Employee's behalf into the Default Investment unless the Covered Employee was already a Plan Participant, in which case the Covered Employee's Default Deferrals shall be allocated pro rata according to the Covered Employee's existing allocation elections at the time the Deferral is contributed except in 2016, in which case Section 3.9 shall apply.

- (5) Default Deferrals under the EACA will be effective as early as administratively practicable following the EACA Effective Date.
- (6) EACA Refunds. A Participant newly enrolled into the Plan through the EACA may elect to receive a refund of all the Default Deferrals (inclusive of earnings/losses allocable to those Default Deferrals) under the provisions of this Subsection. Any distribution made pursuant to this Section will be processed in accordance with normal distribution provisions of the Plan except as otherwise specified herein but shall not be subject to any tax penalty under applicable federal laws and regulations. Partial refunds are not permitted. Also, refunds of Default Deferrals to employees already participating in the Plan prior to the application of an EACA are not permitted (i.e., where a current Participant's Deferral percentage is lower than the Default Percentage and the Participant fails to make an election during the annual Enrollment Period, and as a result, the Deferral percentage is increased to the Default Percentage, refunds of those additional Default Deferrals shall not be refundable).
 - (i) Amount. If a new Participant elects to receive a refund of Default Deferrals under this Subsection, then the Plan must make a distribution equal to the amount of the Default Deferrals made under the EACA through the pay date for the second payroll period that begins after the Covered Employee's refund request, plus or minus allocable gains and losses.
 - (ii) Fees. Notwithstanding the above, the Administrator may reduce the permissible distribution amount by any generally applicable fees. However, the Plan may not charge a greater fee for distribution under this Section than applies to other distributions. The Administrator may adopt a policy regarding charging such fees consistent with this paragraph.
 - (iii) Timing. The Participant may make an election to withdraw the Default Deferrals under the EACA no later than ninety (90) days after the date of the Covered Employee's EACA first contribution date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a new Participant shall not be eligible to receive a refund if the Participant makes an Affirmative Election during the ninety (90) day period.
 - (iv) Effect of Affirmative Election. A Participant's Affirmative Election(s) continues in effect until the Participant subsequently revokes or modifies those Affirmative Election(s) and/or his or her Participation Agreement or the next Enrollment Period. A Participant who makes an Affirmative Election is not thereafter subject to the EACA until the next Enrollment Period.

3.2 Special 457 Catch-Up Contributions

(a) In any one or more of a Participant's last three calendar years ending before the year in which the Participant attains Normal Retirement Age, the Participant may elect to make Deferrals in an amount not exceeding the lesser of (1) twice the dollar amount permitted as a general deferral under Section 3.1 or (2) the sum of the maximum deferral permitted under Section 3.1 for the current tax year and as much of the applicable deferral limit under Code Section 457(b)(2) in prior years before the current tax year that had not previously been used ("underutilized amount"). For purposes of this Section, a prior year will be taken into account only if such year began after December 31, 1978, and the Participant was eligible to participate in the Plan during all or a portion of the prior year. A Participant may only make this election under this subsection once with respect to any plan under Code Section 457(b) of the Employer.

(b) In determining a Participant's underutilized amount, the Plan will take into consideration:

- (1) Prior to 2002, if a Participant made Deferrals to the Plan and deferrals to any other plan under Code Section 457(b), salary reduction contributions made to plans under Code Section 401(k), plans under Code Section 403(b), simplified employee pension (SARSEP) plans under Code Section 402(h)(1), simple retirement accounts under Code Section 408(p), and amounts deferred under any plan for which a deduction is allowed because of a contribution to an organization described in Code Section 501(c)(18), such deferrals to the other plans will be taken into account in determining a Participant's underutilized amount under Code Section 457(b)(2). In addition, Includible Compensation will be limited to the limitation in effect in the calendar year in which the deferrals were made. If such deferrals cumulatively exceed the then-applicable dollar amount in Code Section 457(b)(2) in the year that such amounts were deferred, then there will be no underutilized amount for that year.
- (2) To the extent that the Employer did not maintain a plan under Code Section 457(b), no underutilized limitation is available to a Participant for that prior year
- (3) After 2001, only deferrals to plans under Code Section 457(b) will be taken into account for purposes of determining the underutilized amount.
- (4) Age 50 Plus Catch-Up Contributions will not be taken into account for purposes of determining a Participant's underutilized amount.

3.3 Age 50 Plus Catch-Up Contributions

A Participant who attains age 50 before the close of the calendar year may elect Age 50 Plus Catch-up Contributions, or have excess 457 contributions reclassified as Age 50 Plus Catch-up. The maximum dollar amount of the Age 50 Plus Catch-up Contributions for a calendar year adjusted for cost of living under Code Section 414(v)(2)(C).

3.4 Maximum Amount of Catch-Up Contributions

Any catch-up contributions made by a Participant pursuant to Section 3.2 or Section 3.3 may not exceed the greater of (a) the amount that the Participant is eligible to make as Deferrals under Section 3.2 or (b) the amount that the Participant is eligible to make as Deferrals under Section 3.3.

3.5 Participant Covered by More than one 457(b) Plan

If a Participant is or has been a participant in one or more other plans under Code Section 457(b) in the same calendar year, then the Plan and all such other plans will be considered as one plan for purposes of applying the limitations of this Article III. For this purpose, the Administrator will take into account any other such plan of the Employer under Code Section 457(b) and, to the extent the Participant provides the Administrator with sufficient information concerning his participation, any such other plans under Code Section 457(b) in which the individual participated in the same calendar year.

3.6 Excess Deferrals

(a) In the event that the limit on Deferrals is exceeded pursuant to this Article III, the Administrator will direct the Provider as to the proper correction method permissible under applicable law, including calculation of any earnings or losses and the proper tax reporting with respect to such distributions as soon as administratively practicable after the Administrator determines that the amount is an excess deferral.

(b) A Participant who participates in the Plan and another 457(b) plan of another employer will be responsible for complying with the deferral limits of this Article III. In the event of an excess amount, the Participant will notify the Administrator so that the excess may be distributed as soon as practicable after the Administrator determines that the amount is an excess deferral.

The amount so transferred will be credited to the appropriate account under the Participant Account and will be held, accounted for, administered and otherwise treated in the same manner as amounts as held in the transferor plan, except that the transferred amounts will not be taken into consideration for purposes of Code Section 457(b)(2) for the year of transfer.

3.8 Rollovers to the Plan

(a) An Eligible Individual, whether a Participant at the time, will be permitted to rollover amounts that are considered eligible rollover distributions as defined in Code Section 402(c)(4) to the Plan from an eligible retirement plan, as defined in Code Section 402(c)(8)(B).

In the event no valid designation of Beneficiary exists at the time of the Participant's or Beneficiary's death, the death benefit will be payable to the Participant's or Beneficiary's estate.

(c) The Administrator may require such proper proof of death and such evidence of the right of any person to receive payment of the value of the Participant Account of a deceased Participant or Beneficiary, as the Administrator may deem appropriate. Any beneficiary designation or subsequent change thereto will not be effective until it is received in proper form by the Administrator or Provider. Participants and Beneficiaries described in the preceding sentence will be given the opportunity to elect to receive the distributions described in the preceding sentence.

(c) In addition, notwithstanding Section 4.8, 2009 RMDs and Extended 2009 RMDs will be treated as eligible rollover distributions as defined in Code Section 402(c)(4).

4.6 Unforeseeable Emergency Withdrawals

(a) A Participant or Beneficiary may request an Unforeseeable Emergency withdrawal subject to the following requirements:

- (1) The request for an Unforeseeable Emergency withdrawal will be determined by the Administrator based on the Participant's or Beneficiary's relevant facts and circumstances.

If the review of the determination fails to confirm a claim of Unforeseeable Emergency, an appeal may be made to the appellate committee established by the Administrator in writing. If at any time a request of an Unforeseeable Emergency withdrawal is approved, the Employer may thereupon direct the Provider to distribute so much of the Participant Account as is necessary to provide the amount approved to meet the Unforeseeable Emergency, as determined by the Administrator.

(c) Further rules and procedures related to Unforeseeable Emergency withdrawals may be made by the applicable Provider and/or Administrator.

A Participant may elect to receive a small balance distribution, payable in a lump sum, if the Participant's Account equals $5,000 or less, and the Participant has not made Deferrals to the Plan for a period of no less than two years before distribution. A Participant may take a small balance distribution under this Section only once while a Participant under the Plan, although the one-time election may be processed separately if more than one money source is involved (e.g., Roth and non-Roth). Alternately, the Administrator may distribute in a lump sum any Participant's Account value equal to $5,000 or less if the Participant has not made deferrals to the Plan for a period of no less than two years before distribution.

Any portion of a distribution which is not rolled over will be distributed directly to the Participant.

(b) A non-spousal Beneficiary may elect to roll over death benefits amounts in accordance with Code Section 402(c)(11) provided that:

- (1) such amounts are rolled over to an inherited IRA via a direct trustee-to-trustee transfer;
- (2) such election is made by December 31 of the year following the year of the Participant's death; and
- (3) the rolled over amounts are eligible rollover distributions as defined in Code Section 402(c)(4).

(a) If a Participant is also a participant in a tax qualified defined benefit governmental plan (as defined in Code Section 414(d)) that provides for the acceptance of plan-to-plan transfers with respect to the Participant, then the Participant may elect to have any portion of his Participant Account transferred to the defined benefit governmental plan in accordance with Code Section 457(e)(17). A transfer under this Section may be made before the Participant has had a Severance from Employment.

(b) A transfer may be made under subsection (a) only if the transfer is either for the purchase of permissive service credit (as defined in Code Section 415(n)(3)(A)) under the receiving defined benefit governmental plan or a repayment to which Code Section 415 does not apply by reason of Code Section 415(k)(3).

4.10 Transfers to Other Plans under Code Section 457(b) Upon Severance From Employment

(a) Upon a Participant's Severance from Employment, a Participant may elect to have all or a portion of the Participant Account transferred to the plan under Code Section 457(b) of an employer defined in Code Section 457(e)(1)(A). Such amounts will be transferred at the Participant's election, provided:

- (1) The plan under Code Section 457(b) to which the Participant's benefit is being transferred provides for the acceptance of such amounts;
- (2) The Participant or Beneficiary has a benefit equal to the amount immediately after the transfer to least equal to the amount under the Plan immediately before the transfer; and
- (3) In the case of a transfer made on behalf of a Participant, such individual has had a Severance from Employment with the Employer and is performing services for an employer maintaining the receiving plan.

(b) Upon the transfer of amounts under subsection (a), the Plan's liability to pay benefits to the Participant or Beneficiary under the Plan will be discharged to the extent of the amount so transferred on behalf of the Participant or Beneficiary. The Administrator may require such documentation from the receiving plan as it deems appropriate or necessary to comply with this Section or effectuate the transfer pursuant to Section 1.457-10(b) of the Income Tax Regulations. If Roth Contributions are transferred, the receiving plan must permit Designated Roth contributions as defined in Code Section 402A.

4.11 Loans to Participants

(a) A Participant may receive a loan from his Participant Deferral Account and from the sub-accounts designated by the Administrator. Such loans may also be subject to the requirements of the Investment Product(s) and as set forth in the loan program created by the Administrator.

(b) For purposes of this Section, all plans of the Employer will be considered one plan in accordance with Code Section 72(p) and Income Tax Regulations thereunder, and the balance of all loans under any plan of the Employer under which the Participant participates must be aggregated in determining the maximum loan available under subsection (d).

(c) The Provider may, in accordance with the Administrator's direction, make loans to Participants under the following circumstances: (1) loans will be made available to all Participants on a reasonably equivalent basis; (2) loans will bear a reasonable rate of interest; (3) loans will be adequately secured; and (4) will provide for periodic repayment over a reasonable period of time.

- (2) one-half (1/2) of the Participant Account.

For purposes of this Section, any loan from any other plan maintained by the Employer will be treated as if it were a loan made from the Plan, and the Participant's vested interest under any such other plan will be considered a vested interest under this Plan; provided, however, that the provisions of this paragraph will not be applied so as to allow the amount of a loan to exceed the amount that would otherwise be permitted in the absence of this paragraph.

(e) Loans will provide for level amortization with payments to be made not less frequently than quarterly over a period not to exceed five (5) years. However, loans used to acquire any dwelling unit which, within a reasonable time, is to be used (determined at the time the loan is made) as a principal residence of the Participant will, provide for periodic repayment over a reasonable period to be determined by the Administrator of time that may exceed five (5) years. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event a Participant enters the uniformed services of the United States and retains reemployment rights under law, repayments will be suspended and interest will cease to accrue during the period of leave and the period of repayment will be extended by the number of months of leave in the uniformed services. In the event a Participant is on an Employer-approved, bona fide leave of absence without pay, loan payments may be suspended (but interest will continue to accrue) for the period of leave but not to exceed one year; however, the loan must be repaid by the original loan repayment date.

(f) An assignment or pledge of any portion of a Participant's interest in the Plan will be treated as a loan under this Section.

(g) Any security interest held by the Plan by reason of an outstanding loan to the Participant will be taken into account in determining the amount of the death benefit or single lump-sum payment.

4.12 Distributions from Governmental Plans for Health and Long Term Care.

4.14 Domestic Abuse Victim Distribution.

Upon eligibility for a Domestic Abuse Victim Distribution, as defined under Section 314 of the SECURE 2.0 Act, a Participant may elect to receive a distribution in an amount not to exceed the lesser of (i) $10,000 or (ii) 50% of the Participant's Plan Benefit, subject to the requirements and limitations imposed by Section 314 of the SECURE 2.0 Act

4.15 Qualified Disaster Recovery Distributions (QDRDs)

(a) Availability. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, upon a Federal Disaster the Plan may distribute a QDRD to a Qualified Individual (Disaster) in accordance with this §4.15. A QDRD may be made without regard to whether the Participant has otherwise incurred a distributable event under §4.1.

(b) Amount Limits. The total QDRDs to a Participant for any single Federal Disaster shall not exceed $22,000 in the aggregate across all plans of the Employer and any Related Employer, or such other amount as may be prescribed by SECURE 2.0 §331 and subsequent federal guidance. The Administrator may rely on a Participant's reasonable representation of the amount received in other plans.

(c) Timing. A QDRD may be made during the period permitted under SECURE 2.0 §331 and any related IRS guidance for the applicable Federal Disaster.

(d) Tax Treatment; Reporting. A QDRD is intended to qualify for the special federal tax treatment under SECURE 2.0 §331, including (i) income inclusion ratably over three taxable years unless the Participant elects otherwise, and (ii) eligibility for recontribution under §4.15(f). A QDRD shall not be treated as an eligible rollover distribution and shall be subject to voluntary withholding only.

(e) Certification. The Administrator may rely on a Participant's written self-certification that (i) the Participant is a Qualified Individual (Disaster), and (ii) the requested QDRD amount complies with the statutory limits. Self-certifications shall be retained with Plan records.

(f) Recontribution Right. A Participant who receives a QDRD may, within three (3) years from the day after the date the QDRD is received, recontribute any portion of the QDRD to this Plan if the Participant is eligible to make a rollover contribution to the Plan at the time of recontribution. Recontributions shall be treated as rollover contributions and shall be allocated to the Participant's Rollover Account (or Roth applicable account if the QDRD was from a Roth source), and invested according to the Participant's current investment election.

(g) Qualified Home-Purchase Recontributions. If permitted for the applicable Federal Disaster under SECURE 2.0 §331 and IRS guidance, a Participant may recontribute to the Plan any Qualified Home-Purchase Distribution (Disaster) within the time period prescribed by federal guidance. Such recontributions shall be treated as rollover contributions to the extent allowed by law.

(h) Coordination with Other Distributions. QDRDs are separate from Emergency Personal Expense Distributions under §4.13 and Domestic Abuse Victim Distributions under §4.14. The Administrator will track statutory limits separately.

(i) Administrative Procedures. The Administrator may adopt additional procedures (including forms, documentation standards, and reasonable processing fees) to administer QDRDs consistent with this §4.15 and applicable law.

5.1 Powers and Responsibilities of the Employer and/or Administrator

(a) The Employer and/or Administrator will have full power to interpret and construe the Plan in a manner consistent with its terms and the provisions of Code Section 457, including the applicable Income Tax Regulations and to establish practices and procedures conforming to those provisions. In all such cases, the Employer's and/or Administrator's determination will be final and conclusive upon all persons. It is recognized that unusual circumstances may occur and questions may arise that are not specifically covered by any provision of the Plan, and the Employer and/or Administrator will have the right to resolve all such questions. Notwithstanding the above, the Employer's and/or Administrator's power and responsibility under the Plan will not extend to, nor have any control over, those responsibilities and duties of the Provider.

Any such determination by the Administrator will be conclusive and binding upon all persons. The Administrator may establish procedures, correct any defect, supply any information, or reconcile any inconsistency in such manner and to such extent as will be deemed necessary or advisable to carry out the purpose of the Plan; provided, however, that any procedure, discretionary act, interpretation or construction will be done in a nondiscriminatory manner based upon uniform principles consistently applied and will be consistent with the intent that the Plan will continue to be deemed a qualified plan under the terms of Code Section 457, and will comply with the terms of all Income Tax Regulations issued pursuant thereto. The Administrator will have all powers necessary or appropriate to accomplish his duties under this Plan. The Administrator will be charged with the duties of the general administration of the Plan, including, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) the discretion to determine all questions relating to the eligibility of Employees and Independent Contractors to participate or remain a Participant hereunder and to receive benefits under the Plan;

(h) Disaster Relief Certifications. In administering §4.15, the Administrator may rely on a Participant's self-certification of eligibility and of the aggregate amount received under other employer plans, unless the Administrator has actual knowledge to the contrary.

5.5 Records and Reports

The Administrator will keep a record of all actions taken and will keep all other books of accounts, records, and other data that may be necessary for proper administration of the Plan and will be responsible for supplying all information and reports to the Internal Revenue Service, Participants, Beneficiaries and others as required by law.

To enable the Administrator to perform his functions, the Employer will supply the necessary information to the Administrator or Provider on a timely basis regarding the Participants under the Plan, including but not limited to Compensation, date of hire, date of death, Severance from Employment, and such other pertinent facts and data as the Administrator may require. The Administrator may rely upon such information as is supplied by the Employer and will have no duty or responsibility to verify such information.

5.8 Payment of Expenses

All expenses of Plan administration will be paid by the Participants by a method approved by the Administrator, which may be specified in the Plan's Operating Procedures. Such expenses will include any expenses incident to the functioning of the Administrator, including, but not limited to, fees of accountants, counsel, and other specialists and their agents, and other costs of administering the Plan.

5.9 Discontinuance of Provider

Notwithstanding Section 3.9, if any Provider ceases to be eligible to receive Deferrals under the Plan, the Administrator may direct that both existing amounts under Participant Accounts that were invested through such Provider and any future contributions be transferred to Investment Products through any other available Provider.

ARTICLE VI AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

6.1 Amendment

(a) The City of Milwaukee will have the right at any time to amend this Plan subject to the limitations of this Section. Any such amendment will become effective as provided therein upon its execution.

(b) No amendment to the Plan will be effective if it (i) authorizes or permits any Investment Products or portion(s) thereof (except as required to pay taxes and administration expenses) to be used for or diverted to any purpose other than for the exclusive benefit of Participants or Beneficiaries; (ii) causes any reduction in the amount credited to the account of any Participant or Beneficiary; or (iii) causes or permits any portion of the Investment Product to revert to or become property of the Employer.

6.2 Termination

(a) The City of Milwaukee will have the right at any time to terminate the Plan by resolution of its governing board. In addition, the Employer or Administrator must deliver written notice of discontinuance of an Investment Product to the Provider.

All such amounts will not be subject to the claims of the Employer's general creditors.

7.2 Participant Rights

This Plan will not be deemed to constitute a contract between the Administrator or Employer and any Participant or to be a consideration or an inducement for the employment of any Participant, Employee, or Independent Contractor. Nothing contained in this Plan will be deemed to give any Participant, Employee, or Independent Contractor the right to be retained in the service of the Employer or to interfere with the right of the Employer to discharge any Participant, Employee or Independent Contractor at any time regardless of the effect which such discharge will have upon him as a Participant in this Plan.

7.3 Alienation

Subject to applicable state law (and Code Section 401(g) if the Investment Product consists of an annuity contract) and except as provided in Section 7.4, no benefit which will be payable to any person (including a Participant or his Beneficiary) will be subject in any manner to anticipation, alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, or charge, and any attempt to anticipate, alienate, sell, transfer, assign, pledge, encumber, or charge the same will be void; and no such benefit will in any manner be liable for, or subject to, the debts, contracts, liabilities, engagements, or torts of any such person, nor will be subject to attachment or legal process for or against such person, and the same will not be recognized except to such extent as may be required by law.

7.4 Recognition of Approved Domestic Relations Orders

Notwithstanding Section 7.3, if a judgment, decree or order (including approval of a property settlement agreement) that relates to the provision of child support, alimony payments, or the marital property rights of a spouse or former spouse, child, or other dependent of a Participant is made pursuant to the domestic relations law of any State ("domestic relations order") and Code Section 414(p), then the amount of the Participant Account will be paid in the manner and to the person or persons so directed in the domestic relations order. Such payment will be made without regard to whether the Participant is eligible for a distribution of benefits under the Plan. The Administrator will establish reasonable procedures for determining the status of any such decree or order and for effectuating distribution pursuant to the domestic relations order.

7.5 IRS Levy

Notwithstanding Section 7.3, if a Participant or Beneficiary is entitled to a distribution in accordance with Section 5, the Administrator may pay from a Participant's or Beneficiary's Account the amount that the Administrator finds is lawfully demanded under a levy issued by the Internal Revenue Service with respect to that Participant or Beneficiary or is sought to be collected by the United States Government under a judgment resulting from an unpaid tax assessment against the Participant or Beneficiary.

7.6 Distribution for Minor Beneficiary or Incompetent

If a Participant or Beneficiary entitled to receive any benefits hereunder is a minor or is adjudged to be legally incapable of giving valid receipt and discharge for such benefits, or is deemed so by the Administrator, benefits will be paid to such person as the Administrator may designate for the benefit of such Participant or Beneficiary. Such payments shall be considered a payment to such Participant or Beneficiary and shall, to the extent made, be deemed a complete discharge of any liability for such payments under the Plan.

7.7 Mistaken Contributions

If any contribution (or any portion of a contribution) is made to the Plan by a good faith mistake of fact, then within one year after the payment of the contribution, and upon receipt in good order of a proper request approved by the Administrator, the amount of the mistaken contribution (adjusted for any income or loss in value, if any, allocable thereto) will be returned directly to the Participant or, to the extent required or permitted by the Administrator, to the Employer.

7.8 Procedure When Distributee Cannot Be Located

The Administrator shall make all reasonable attempts to determine the identity and address of a Participant or Beneficiary entitled to benefits under the Plan. For this purpose, a reasonable attempt means (a) the mailing by certified mail of a notice to the last known address shown on the Employer's or the Administrator's records, (b) notification sent to the Social Security Administration or the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (under their program to identify payees under retirement plans), and (c) the payee has not responded within 6 months. If the Administrator is unable to locate such a person entitled to benefits hereunder, or if there has been no claim made for such benefits, the funding vehicle shall continue to hold the benefits due such person.

7.9. Compliance for Group Trust Participation

(a) The Administrator may, unless restricted by law and/or the Plan's investment guidelines, transfer all or any portion of the assets of the Plan to a collective or common group trust, as permitted under Revenue Ruling 81-100, Revenue Ruling 2011-1, and Revenue Ruling 2014-24, or subsequent guidance, that is operated or maintained exclusively for the commingling and collective investment of monies, provided that the funds in the group trust consist exclusively of trust assets held under plans qualified under s. 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, individual retirement accounts that are exempt under s. 408(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, eligible governmental plans that meet the requirements of s. 457(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, and governmental plans under s. 401(a)(24) of the Internal Revenue Code. For this purpose, a trust includes a custodial account or separate tax-favored account maintained by an insurance company that is treated as a trust under s. 401(f) or s. 457(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Any collective or common group trust to which assets of the Plan are transferred pursuant to par. a shall be adopted by the Administrator as part of the retirement system by executing appropriate participation, adoption agreements, or trust agreements with the group trust's trustee.

(c) The separate account maintained by the group trust for the Plan pursuant to paragraph (a) above shall not be used for, or diverted to, any purpose other than for the exclusive benefit of the Participants and Beneficiaries of the retirement system.

(d) For purposes of valuation, the value of the separate account maintained by the group trust for the Plan shall be the fair market value of the portion of the group trust held for the Plan, determined in accordance with generally recognized valuation procedures.
