

Mark Porreca

2800 E. Edgewood Ave
Shorewood, Wisconsin 53211
414-477-2325

- General Contractor, Master Carpenter, Cabinet & Furniture Maker

Mark Porreca Custom Build, LLC. Milwaukee, Wisconsin
Full-time Jan 1992 - Present · 30 yrs 11

- Mark Porreca Custom Build, LLC offers comprehensive professional Residential and Commercial Design Build Services to the greater Milwaukee and southeast Wisconsin communities. Before moving to Milwaukee in 2009, Mark had 23 years of experience in designing and building custom homes in Northern New England enabling him to recognize that every project, large or small, has a level of complexity that requires careful attention. Customer needs and expectations are understood to be an important element to any project as are the materials and craftsmanship. Quality, dependability and unparalleled customer attention have always served as Mark's guide his entire career. Mark Porreca Custom Build, LLC offers comprehensive professional Residential and Commercial Design Build Services to the greater Milwaukee and southeast Wisconsin communities. Before moving to Milwaukee in 2009, Mark had 23 years of experience in designing and building custom homes in Northern New England enabling him to recognize that every project, large or small, has a level of complexity that requires careful attention. Customer needs and expectations are understood to be an important element to any project as are the materials and craftsmanship. Quality, dependability and unparalleled customer attention have always served as Mark's guide his entire career.

Tutor/Instructor

Wilmington High School, Wilmington,
Sep 1993 - May 1996 · 2 yrs 7 month

- Worked with 'at-risk' students involving academic tutoring and developed a program for guiding students through out-of-classroom learning experiences. Actively substitute taught for the foreign language department and chaperoned international travel of the foreign language club.

Academic Tutor

Mount Snow Academy, West Dover, Vermont
Nov 1987 - Apr 1996 · 8 yrs 6

- Teacher of American History, U.S. Government, English Literature and Elementary Spanish to students a various ability levels and backgrounds.

Capitol Improvement & Project Development, Teacher-AP History & American Government

Archbishop Carroll High School, Washington, DC
Aug 1984 - Aug 1987 · 3 yrs 1

- During my tenure at ACHS I was the Assistant to the Headmaster for developing and implementing capital expense projects. I served as participating member of both the Academic and Advisory Boards informing and advising on matters concerning school operations, curriculum, and other academically related matters. Additionally, I taught American History and American Government, including advanced placement courses at this inner-city Washington, DC all-boys high school. During my tenure at ACHS I was the Assistant to the Headmaster for developing and implementing capital expense projects. I served as participating member of both the Academic and Advisory Boards informing and advising on matters concerning school operations, curriculum, and other academically related matters. Additionally, I taught American History and American Government, including advanced placement courses at this inner-city Washington, DC all-boys high school.

EFL Instructor

Colegio de Espana, Salamanca, Spain

Sep 1982 - Dec 1982 · 4 months

- Conducted classes of English as a Foreign Language for adult, native speakers of Spanish.