The applicant stated the night prior, at about 8:00pm, she had kicked out a disorderly patron and then heard a gunshot outside. The subject attempted to get back in the bar but was escorted out by other patrons and did not return.
3. On 06/25/2019 at 3:46am officers investigated a battery DV complaint. The victim of that incident stated she was at on Your Way Home, 2079 S 8th St. At about 1:14am her boyfriend got into a fight with a male subject and she got into a fight with the girlfriend of that subject. Her boyfriend ran into the business and the boyfriend of the girl she was fighting grabbed a gun and struck her to the head with it. He then pointed the gun at her. She was able to return to the tavern and the suspects fled the scene. The applicant came to the scene and provided the video of the incident to the officers.

LICENSE PREMISE REPORT

Ulickey, Garrett 030931

09/07/2019

This report is written by PO Garrett ULICKEY, Assigned to District Two, Late Power, Squad 2552 with PO Benjamin SPITZER. Both Officers were equipped with Axon Flex body worn cameras.

On Saturday, September 7th, 2019 at approximately 2:35 AM, I conducted a tavern check at On My Way Home Bar, 2079 S. 8th St. after observing approximately ten patrons exiting the bar after closing time.

On arrival I spoke with the bartender, identified as Michele L. SERDYNSKI (W/F, 11-20-1969), who stated she was bar tending. SERDYNSKI stated she was having issues getting patrons to exit the bar prior to close. SERDYNSKI provided me with a valid Class D (0226295) bartender's license. I asked for the Class B tavern license (0206213) which SERDYNSKI provided from behind a bag of chips, which was not view able to the public. SERDYNSKI was advised on the importance of having no patrons left in the bar after closing, and making sure any Licenses are view able to the public. No patrons were inside of the tavern when we made entry. SERDYNSKI was cooperative, and no additional tavern violations were observed.

End of report.

This report is being typed by P.O. Matthew C. KNAACK, assigned to District Two, Day Shift.

On Saturday, April 4th, 2020, while on Squad 2155 and at approximately 1:10 PM, I responded to 2079 S.

8th St. (On My Way Home Bar) for the call of a business that was open with patrons actively drinking. The business was willfully violating the "Safer at Home" order by Governor Evers, which instructed all non-essential travel, business and social interactions to cease during the State of Emergency. I was dressed in full Milwaukee Police uniform, with my badge affixed to my outer ballistic vest carrier. I was also equipped with my MPD body-worn TASER Axon camera.

Upon my arrival, I observed approximately four to five male subjects seated at the bar and they all appeared to be drinking. As soon as one of the male subjects observed me at the east-side entry door, he stood up and walked to the other side of the business where I could no longer see him. I knocked at the door and received no answer. I then observed several other subjects get up from the bar and walk out of my view. I then knocked a second time, with my department issued baton in an attempt to ensure that the occupants could hear the knocking. I again received no answer. I also tried the door handle, but the door was locked. I then sat outside the business in my marked squad car for approximately 15 minutes and observed no more activity at the location. No one came to the door while I was at the location.

This concludes my report.

'SAFER AT HOME' TAVERN CHECK

Diener, Matthew J 018626

04/06/2020

This report is written by PO Matthew DIENER, assigned to District 2, day shift, squad 2166. On Monday, April 6, 2020, I was advised by PO KNAACK that over the weekend he observed that the tavern 'On the Way Home', located at 2079 S 8th St, was open for business, even under Governor EVERS 'Safer at Home' Order. Myself and squad 2164, PO ACEVEDO, responded to the location at approximately 1:13pm for a tavern check to see if the tavern was open for business. The tavern does not sell food, and is also not a grocer, strictly a tavern, and is listed as being a non-essential business under Governor EVERS executive order for managing the COVID-19 pandemic.

Upon arrival I observed the front door was locked, and as I looked in the window I observed several patrons sitting at the bar with open bottles of Miller High Life beer in front of them. I knocked on the door and after a minute the bartender, identified as Roberto TORRES (w/m, 5-26-62), opened the door and stated that he people in the bar "just cleaning up the place and doing maintenance". I advised TORRES that he's lying to me, and that I can clearly see in plain view open bottles of beer on the bar, along with 2 ashtrays and patrons smoking indoors, which was captured on my Axon BWC. The licensee, Debi DAMRON, then exited the bathroom so I could speak with her. Once inside I observed 3 patrons with at least 2 open Miller High Life beers.

I advised DAMRON this activity is obviously wrong and she knows that the bar shouldn't be open. DAMRON stated that "she didn't know her boyfriend (whom she lives with) was opening the bar", and that she "just came here after work to check in on the place". I told DAMRON that a police officer was here over the weekend and observed the bar open with patrons inside, and that they refused to open the door for the police when he knocked on the door. TORRES then stated that he "never heard them knocking on the door". I advised TORRES that the officer who responded actually knocked on the door loudly with his baton, which was also recorded on his BWC. I advised DAMRON that she has to remain closed until the order is lifted, and that I will be filing a tavern report regarding the incident. DAMRON pleaded with me to not file a PA-33, and stated that the incident is already recorded on camera. I told DAMRON that if the behavior continues to occur that she can be cited and/or ordered in for misdemeanor charges. DAMRON then stated that this could "shut her bar down".

INITIAL INVESTIGATION

Brown, Penny A 014805

04/10/2020

This report is written by PO Penny MONREAL assigned to the License Investigation Unit.

On Friday, April 10, 2020, at approximately 12:30P, I conducted a License Premise Check at On My Way Home Tavern, located at 2079 S. 8th St. This was in regards to an anonymous citizen complaint they were open for business contrary to Governor EVERS, Safer at Home Order due to COVID-19. This business is considered non-essential and therefore should not be operating.

On arrival I found the door to be locked and all interior and exterior lights to be off, however, I was greeted at the door by the bartender: Roberto TORRES W/M 05/26/62. I explained to TORRES of the reason for my license premise check and asked to be allowed to check for patrons in the establishment. TORRES was cooperative and allowed me entrance. I checked the basement, office, kitchen area, and restrooms, and found the bar to be empty. TORRES stated he was aware of the order and stated he had assured other Milwaukee Police Officers that responded previously that he would remain closed. I thanked TORRES for his time and cooperation.
