This report is written by P.O. Brian HOLMES, assigned to District 5, early Power Shift, Squad 5261.

On Friday, February 14, 2025, at approximately 5:01 PM, I was dispatched to 3305 N Dr Martin Luther King Jr Dr. for a Shooting Complaint. This incident was a homicide.

RAGSDALE allowed me to view the incident on two of the cameras but the camera facing east on the front of the building was not operating at this time. The camera which would normally show the front counter area inside the building was also not mounted correctly.

LICENSED PREMISE REPORT

Felix, Carlos 015476

11/13/2025

This report submitted by Officer Carlos Felix assigned to the Licenses Investigation Unit.

On Saturday, 10-04-25, I along with coordinator Edgar Mendez from Jump at the Sun Consultants conducted a Wisconsin WINS Tobacco Prevention compliance check. Assisting were a 17-year-old female (TA' Niyah Shamon Sanders, B/F 07/05/08, 3514 N. 13th St.) and a 16-year-old male (Malik Hughes B/M 05/18/09, 2725 N. 11th St.). Both of them had a WI Id's Card that indicated their dates of births. Both are under the legal age to purchase a tobacco product.

They were instructed to walk into a business together and one of them would attempt to purchase a tobacco product. If the store employee asked for their ID card, they would present the employee with it. If the store employee did not ask for an ID Card, they would not present an ID Card. The legal age to purchase tobacco is 21 years old in the State of Wisconsin, 18 in Milwaukee.

At 10:29 AM., both Sanders and Hughes walked into Green Ring 2 located at 3305 N Martin Luther King DR. Hughes asked a cashier for a tobacco product and was served without them verifying his age.

The described Cashier / SELLER, BLACK MALE, BLACK SLEEVELESS SHIRT, RED SHORTS, WEARING Jewelry,

AND TALLER IN HIGHT.

At 11:00 AM, the cashier was identified as Tajirie DAVIS, Address: 804 E. OGDEN, MILWAUKEE, WI, Phone: 850-8455. I advised they sold a Black and Mild Cigar containing tobacco to a minor and never asked to see WI ID card to verify Hughes was the legal age to purchase the item before conducting a sale. DAVIS, never denied that he failed to ask her for a WI ID Card. He also never denied selling the Black and Mild Cigar. DAVIS stated he did not need to check an ID, because he knew HUGHES was 18 years old. The agent was on site and was advised of the sale. The agent replied by stating, I thought you guys had better things to do".

I did not view the surveillance video.

I ended by provided my contact information.

LICENSED PREMISE REPORT

Letteer, David J 016078

11/28/2025

This license premise report is written by PO David LETTEER, assigned to District 5 CPU, Sq. 5166.

On 11-24-25, I along with Special Agent Holly MCMANUS from Bureau of Enforcement Division of Alcohol Beverages, Special Agent Brian WALDHERR Office of Criminal Investigation and ADA Brittany KACHINGWAE went to the location of 3305 N. Martin L. King Jr. Dr., Green Ring II, which is a licensed business in Milwaukee.

Special Agent MCMANUS wanted to visit this establishment to conduct a liquor and tobacco inspection. Upon arrival the only person who was working was the clerk Tajirie J. DAVIS, who was sitting behind the cash register. DAVIS was informed of why we were at the establishment. DAVIS was able to contact the registered agent Isaac RAGSDALE, who eventually arrived at the business while we were there. As we entered the premise, a customer was standing in front of the cashier, holding what appeared to be money. Special Agent MCMANUS did later inform me that the two were going back and forth over the price of alcohol and a brown paper bag was observed.

I did check the licenses which were posted for Alcohol, food and cigarette. I did not see any license for DAVIS. I spoke to DAVIS and asked him if he had a Class D Operator's license and he stated he took the responsible servers course. DAVIS was informed to sell beer or alcohol he would need that a Class D Operator's license issued to him. A wanted check of DAVIS revealed a warrant for an unrelated incident and he was taken into custody and conveyed to District 5.

Special Agent MCMANUS began her inspection and behind the cashier counter, in the southeast corner of the building was a liquor box, which was inspected for the distributor sticker. Upon picking up the box, Special Agent MCMANUS found a black plastic bag in the box. When the bag was moved, she found that the bag contained a large clear plastic baggie containing a green plant like substance (suspected marijuana). Once this was found she stopped the inspection and drafted a search warrant for the premise.

OtherEvent #: 25-LP-5410

The search warrant was drafted, reviewed and approved. Once the search warrant was approved, a copy was left with the business, eventually given to RAGSDALE. The search warrant encompassed the main floor of the business, as well as the basement area.

During the course of the search warrant located was a black wallet in the cashier area, with a small zip pouch containing a pink colored pill inside of the wallet, left at the store. There were 4 plastic jars of Black Kief Chiefs cigarillos, with one of the containers having a green sticker on the cap with $5.00 written on the sticker, there were no other prices on the other 3 containers, located on a counter in the cashier area. The containers are from California Kief, Cali exotic coating and advertised on the bottles THC-A/Hemp pre-roll 2 grams 20 count, being Delta 9.

The Black Kief's were in different flavor containers. There were two Pink Runts, with one being the container with the green sticker on the cap (3 cigarillos), Cherry Pie (7 cigarillos) and Tango flavor (9 cigarillos).

Also located was a black digital scale located in a Chor boi box, a gold in color metal grinder behind the cashier counter and a We Energies utility bill with the name of Isaac RAGSDALE, for the location of 3305 N. Martin L. King Jr. Dr.

During the course of the search warrant, officers found the establishment to be filthy, with dust on the liquor bottles, dust on beer cans in the cooler, cooler doors not sealing properly and rat poison next to tobacco items and flavored water packs. There was a small crock pot with what appeared to be a sauce cooking, but there was no food or any item there that day that would require sauce. The shelves where the food items were heavily covered in dust. Also found was a sealed food container on the top shelf of a food rack holding food items. It is unknown how old the sealed food container was. The container could not be seen until I used a ladder to look on the top shelf.

RAGSDALE had ammunition behind the counter and a BB pistol near the cash register, no firearm was located at the time of the search. There was old food on top of a shelf, along with chips in a box on top of a cooler, with a large layer of dust on the boxes, which appeared to be there for later sale.

While walking in the store, there were areas of the floor that when walked or one stood on began to sink, indicating that the floor is weak in certain spots. Upon going down into the basement, RAGSDALE was storing liquor items in a room, which did have the Green Ring label on the boxes.

Looking at the ceiling in the basement, there were spots that were broken and appeared to be broken from the main level down into the basement. The Health Department and DNS will be advised of this.

Special Agent MCMANUS did confiscate US Currency from the business, while Special Agent WALDHERR confiscated two boxes of Tobacco items, with two packs of cigarettes having the tax stamp scratched off. It was noted on their report that the business is much unorganized with the business documents. It is impossible to tell what the documents cover as it relates to the business. RAGSDALE was informed to update his license to include the basement being used for storage of his alcohol. It was also noted that RAGSDALE needs to keep two years' worth of invoices on premise for all cigarette and tobacco products, sorting his invoices by distributor.

The grinder, scale and We Energies bill were taken to District 5 and placed on inventory. The green plant like substance in the clear plastic bag was tested and tested positive for THC and placed on inventory. The 3 cigarillos in the Black Kief Chiefs Pink Runts container, with the green $5.00 label on the cap was tested and that also returned positive for THC. It should be noted that the cigarillos from all the containers were rolled the same with the fat end, which would be burned upon using a lighter, had a pressed in end.

The exception would be the container with the green $5.00 sticker that the 3 cigarillos contained in the container had the fat end, which would be burned did not have pressed in end, but was wrapped in a pigtail, which indicated that these cigarillos might be rolled by someone other than the manufacturer.

The total amount of items recovered during the State's search warrant is:

- 450 grams of marijuana (THC)
- The 3 cigarillos in the green sticker $5.00 bottle had a total weight of 6.612 grams of marijuana

- The 7 Cherry Pie cigarillos, 9 Tango cigarillos and 6 Pink Runts (without the green sticker) weighed 39.00 grams gross weight
- Pink pill in the zip pouch tested positive for Methamphetamine and weighed .34 grams and US Currency

A check of the application does not show the basement being applied for as it relates to the storage of alcohol and the license is for the entire first floor.

Special Agent MCMANUS did take pictures of the location during her inspection. Those photos will be uploaded to Evidence.com.
