

Roderic J. F. McWilliams

Experience

August 2005–Present Milwaukee County Milwaukee, WI

Director of Communications, Milwaukee County Executive

- Coordinate communications for the county executive's office
- Responsible for dissemination of information to the public via the media

1995–August 2005 Bayside Police Department Bayside, WI

Police Officer, Public Information Officer

- Responsible for all contact with media during crisis situations and major events
- Duties including patrol, investigations and enforcement of laws
- Implemented procedures for effective communication to the public through the media

2004–Present Thiensville Volunteer Fire Dept. Thiensville, WI

EMS Lieutenant, Public Information Officer

- Responsible for staffing and training of EMS personnel
- Department representative for contact with public and media
- Fire fighter and Emergency Medical Technician

1989–1995 American Red Cross Milwaukee, WI

Public Relations Manager

- Responsible for media relations for local chapter
- One of 12 staff members selected to provide media relations during catastrophic national disasters.
- Responsible for writing and editing chapter newsletters, brochures and other promotional literature

Education

1987-1989 Marquette University Milwaukee, WI

- B.A. Journalism-Public Relations

1985-1987 De Paul University Chicago, IL

1982-1983 Syracuse University Syracuse, NY