I saw him enter with 5 things and exit with 2 things plus a case of beer and would testify to that.

I will absolutely be attending their next renewal hearing and absolutely please do all you can to flag them for objection and review.

In a strange turn of events the officer that went to follow up with the store just followed up with me and said convenient for them their video footage has been down since yesterday so there is no way of validation my claims or their denial of said claims. However this all happened in the course of 15 minutes so all the circumstantial evidence points to the obvious conclusion. The funny thing is that while the officer was just there a food inspector happened to come by for inspection and just shut them down for rat droppings! This place is deplorable and we need to band together to do something Bob, please.

Separately, I have been seeing the guy you tagged a pic of wondering Kilbourn as well, just saw him earlier today actually. Thanks for sharing! We need to look out for each other.

We can place an objection in their license file which will trigger a hearing at renewal time where this incident can be reviewed and neighbors can objection. This is a quasi judicial process meaning that a solid evidentiary record must be present to support non-renewal. An MPD report and/or citations would really help since I don't believe you actually witnessed the exchange of stolen goods for merchandise although there is a strong inference.

North side. He exchanged goods for beer.

Understood alderpersons aren't the one to cite fines - can you explain what action in this case is within your scope of authority and responsibility?

I am very sorry to hear this. Are you referring to the store on the north side of the street. There is also a store on the south side.

BTW; we recently denied the beer license application for the store on the south side and recently denied a full liquor license for the store on the north side although they currently hold a beer license. Both stores have food dealer licenses.

The issue of trading goods is a police matter. Only they have authority to issue citations.

It is my understanding that a store accepting a trade of goods versus payment is not legal and can be fined. I expect Bob Bauman to advise / confirm and help proceed with a fine being issued to this business. If they aren't held accountable then they will have no reason to take it seriously.

On Wed, Dec 18, 2024 at 11:23 AM

That's terrible! I'm so sorry I hope you get your items back and that the store takes it seriously!

On Dec 18, 2024, at 11:19 AM,

A man just stole a package off of our porch. I tracked him down and watched him carry my stolen packages (5 children's toys) into the Raj Beer place on wells between 35th and 34th streets. He walked out of the store a few minutes later with only 2 of the five packages - but also had a case of beer. It's clear he exchanged 3 stolen packages for a case of beer from that store. I called the police to report the theft.

As the man proceeded down the street I confronted him and told him I had video of him, had called the police and demanded he return my property. He handed me the 2 remaining toys. He claimed they were the only 2 items in the box. I told him I watched him go into the beer store and know he traded my stolen goods for beer. He told me to "shut the fuck up" and called me a "stupid bitch" ...

The police community officer is now en route to the beer store to attempt to retrieve my other 3 items. While the theft is an annoyance ... I want to raise a formal complaint against this establishment. Businesses like this should not be allowed to operate in this community. They prey on addicts and they perpetuate the crime and theft in this community.

@robertbauman - please instruct me on how you can support me in this and what steps I need to take to put this business on notice.
