2014 LIBRARYJOURNAL DIRECTORS' SUMMIT STATE OF TRANSFORMATION

The much-discussed future arrives every day, and public libraries are right in the middle of meeting it head on and making opportunity happen—shaping their communities and our culture. Yet, embracing transformation can present organizational and leadership challenges.

Join Library Journal, Chattanooga Public Library, and expert speakers from both inside and outside the library world for the sixth annual Directors' Summit: State of Transformation.

This intimate two-day think tank brings 100-plus library directors together to address building and maintaining resilient organizations that anticipate and greet critical change.
