

Patrick Noonan, RPA, CPM
Director, Real Estate
SixSibs Capital Corporation

Patrick Noonan is the Director of Real Estate for SixSibs Capital Corporation. SixSibs Capital is an investment firm founded by the White Family – owners of Rite-Hite Corporation. Pat is responsible for SixSibs' real estate investment, development, construction, financing, and property management. During his time at SixSibs Capital, Pat has managed SixSibs real estate investments and developments with an aggregate value of more than $250 million. Pat and his team manage a portfolio that includes but not limited to nine hundred and sixty thousand square feet of industrial and four hundred thousand square feet of office space.

Prior to SixSibs Capital, Pat was a Property Manager/General Manager at Colliers International in Milwaukee. He was responsible for a portfolio of assets totaling 1.1 million square feet. The portfolio consisted primarily of newly developed or redeveloped Milwaukee central business district office assets. Beyond his responsibility for the operational and financial health of the buildings, Pat oversaw tens of millions of dollars of tenant improvement and capital improvement projects.

Pat earned a B.A. in Financial Management from University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, MN. He has completed the Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) Real Property Administrator (RPA) designation in 2019 and the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) Certified Property Manager (CPM) designation in 2021. Pat remains actively involved in both organizations and is on the Board of Directors of BOMA Wisconsin holding the title of Second Vice President.

Pat was born and raised in Milwaukee and resides in Wauwatosa with his wife Maureen and their three young children. In his personal time, Pat enjoys spending time outdoors fishing, golfing, and skiing.
