Special Letter

A.D. 15 aide at the table – the alderman does not support the practices of this establishment, but he does recognize the amount of time this operation has been in the community, which is approximately 20 years. This matter was held in April for a meeting with the applicant and the alderman, which didn't take place until last Thursday. One state agency has received over 100 complaints per month related to this business and the Better Business Bureau has closed its file on this company as they do not have the staff and the time to investigate all the complaints.
