Initial Investigation:

Upon arrival, we spoke with an employee who was identified as Dayshun P. KIMKNIGHPON (B/M, 4/9/02). Dayshun stated that at approximately 1 PM, a recent customer who had purchased a vehicle had returned to the business and was upset over some issues with the vehicle. Dayshun showed me the information they had for the subject that was obtained when they originally sold the car to the subject. The subject was identified as Breione T. WALKER (B/M, 6/28/99) and was described by Dayshun as a B/M approximately 6'3" with a heavy build. WALKER was LSW a black winter jacket and gray jeans with a green stripe down the side. Dayshun stated that WALKER became increasingly upset that they could not immediately fix his vehicle and then exited the building and went into his vehicle. When WALKER returned inside the building he was holding a purple/black firearm in his right hand and began making threats to come back to the location and shoot it up along with any employees inside. Dayshun tried to calm WALKER down but he then left the location in his vehicle in an unknown direction. Dayshun was visibly upset over the incident.

P.O. NUTER spoke with another employee and witness of the incident who was identified as Carmen RUIZ (H/M, 12/30/67). RUIZ stated that WALKER came to the business around 1 PM and was upset over recent issues with his vehicle. RUIZ observed WALKER go to his vehicle and grab a purple/black firearm and then return inside the business. WALKER then stated to employees on scene, "...bring your guy uo here or I'll shoot..." referring to the owner of the business. RUIZ stated he then stepped outside to call the owner and left the scene to be away from WALKER. When RUIZ returned, WALKER and his vehicle were gone.

WALKER was driving a 2009 Nissan Murano, black, 4dr that had a Temp. plate of U2018G.

Dayshun stated there is surveillance of the incident but he was unfamiliar with how to properly work the system. Dayshun was notified an officer would be out at a later time to recover the video of the incident.

Dayshun was issued a PV-17.

This case is pending.
