

Mariana Rodriguez, B.A., CADCIII

3210 S. 8th Street Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53215 (414-481-4558)

Summary

- Developed and Implemented the Latina Resource Center
- Created bilingual bicultural domestic violence programs targeting Hispanic families
- Provided technical assistance and trainings on Latina Women and Domestic Violence
- Developed and maintained agency linkages with funding sources and community partners
- Provided Domestic Violence and AODA counseling and presentations
- Experienced in working with male and female offenders

Education

Bachelor of Arts in Psychology, May 1996
CADCIII

Research Published: Women Building Communities: Behind the Scenes In Milwaukee Chapter-Hispanic Women Activists in Milwaukee
Averno College, Milwaukee, WI

Center for Disease Control Planning Committee
Sexual Violence Prevention: Building Leadership and Commitment to Underserved Communities
Program Coordinator & Counseling Experience:

UMOS, Inc. Latina Resource Center
Program Manager

April 25, 01-Current

Responsible for overseeing the day to day programming and customer support designed to promote self-efficiency, safety, and interpersonal development to women who are victims of domestic violence and sexual abuse. Developed and implemented bilingual domestic violence victims services, outreach services, women [']s support groups, advocacy supportive services and Spanish Speaking domestic violence information and education. Developed linkages agency linkages with funding sources and community partners.
Utilized research for use on understanding social problems for planning and implementing bilingual women's services and programs addressing issues of language, culture, immigration, legal systems and public benefits.

Council for the Spanish Speaking, Salud de La Familia

Program Coordinator

March 2000-March 2001

Responsible for the day to day functions of program. Supervise counseling staff. Facilitate AODA groups and provide individual counselling. Attend monthly meetings with primary vendors. Responsible for program development, implementation and evaluation. Provide bilingual AODA services to women, adolescents and men. Maintain relationships with comprehensive network of community resources

Genesis Behavioral Services Inc. Interventions AODA Residential Program, Milwaukee, WI
Program Coordinator-

May 1998-March 200

Supervised counseling staff within the program. Worked constantly to improve the quality of services in the program, with a strong focus on customer satisfaction. Worked with director on overall program development, implementation and evaluation. Participated in the development of program policies and procedures. Screened referral packets for program eligibility and appropriateness. Coordinated structured therapeutic lectures, groups and conferences.