RONALD D. LEONHARDT
CITY CLERK

Dear Sir:

Please accept this letter as a claim against the Milwaukee Police Department for what I consider gross neglect in their lack of response to my auto theft on June 20, 2001.

I am enclosing a copy of all correspondence and bills that was made regarding this matter and the internal investigation that was supposedly made. To this day I feel that had the MPD responded at all, this would not be necessary.

The repairs done to my '92 Oldsmobile Royale prior to the theft were as follows:

| | | |
|---------|---|-------------------|
| 7/7/99 | Air conditioner diagnostic- Griffin Auto | 70.42 |
| 7/13/99 | Air conditioner repair - Griffin | 1140.60 |
| 2/9/01 | Currie Park Auto - brakes, etc. | 966.00 |
| | Currie Park Auto | 69.70 |
| 2/22/01 | Amato Olds 76th St. Power steering Part only | 164.73 |
| 2/23/01 | Amato Olds Pt. Washington Rd. Installation of power steering | 272.63 |
| 3/2/01 | Griffin - sensor, etc. | 323.53 |
| 3/26/01 | Griffin - emission testing work | 227.66 |
| | Total | $3,235.27 |
| | Deductible paid to my insurance company | 100.00 |
| | New license plate - other stolen with car | 45.00 |
| | Emotional stress to a 73 year old woman | 3,000.00 |

I received $3,981.44 from the insurance company but this was a drop in the bucket towards a new car purchase of $19,535.00. I paid down $7,000.00 leaving a balance of $12,535. Since I had no intentions of buying a new car anytime soon, I opted to have the repairs done that were previously listed. Had the MPD responded, I do feel that the car thieves would have been apprehended and minimal damage done to my vehicle.

Because of this I am asking for compensation for my losses. I can be reached at 414-463-7057 if you have any questions.

Respectfully submitted,

Irene D. Taylor

Dear Chief Jones:

I am writing to inform you that I was contacted on October 30, 2001 by a Ms. Irene Taylor, who wished to register a formal complaint about the city's 911 service. She stated that a neighbor witnessed the theft of her car in progress and called 911, but police did not respond because the dispatcher claimed the caller had an "accent."

I have taken the time to speak with this witness and the caller, a Mr. Horacio Fajardo of 8209 West Thurston. At no time did I have reason to ask Mr. Fajardo what he was saying. While he does have a slight accent, his speech is clear and succinct and easily understood.

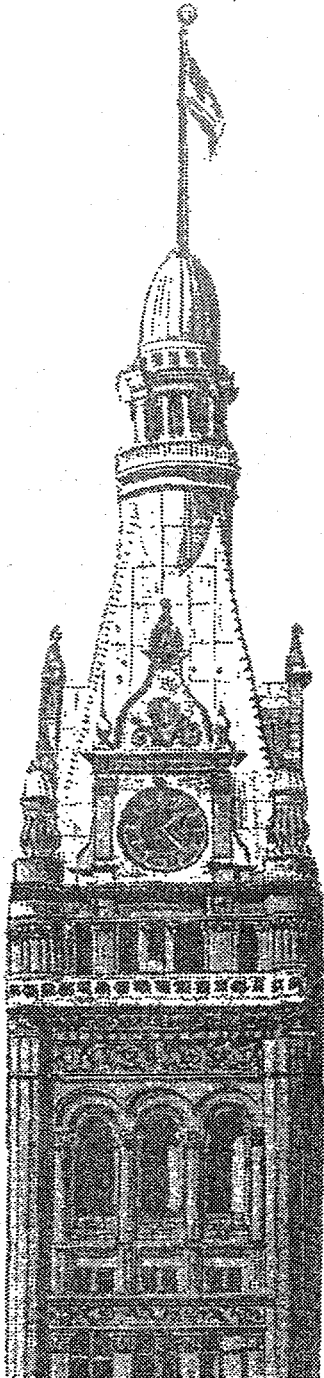

Not only am I disappointed by the Police Department's lack of response to this call, but also to the lack of follow-up by the internal affairs division. At no time was this witness questioned as to distinguishing features or appearances of the thieves, even after Sergeant Singer told Ms. Taylor that a personal contact would be made with the witness. I find this lack of response and the form letter indicating "careful examination...neither proves nor disproves the allegation," completely unacceptable.

It is my opinion that the city has failed Ms. Taylor in all regards. I have asked her to contact the city clerk so that she may begin the formal process for filing a claim against the city.

Sincerely,

Jim Bohl, Alderman
