Subject: a Thank You and an apology

Bob,

Thank you for your time.

While I know my response upset you, I can appreciate your passion. I, however, have to remain neutral. I don't welcome any public attack, but I understand why you may have to do that. I will not take it personally.

I believe I cannot publicly state the reasons of the position I am taking, which is why I wanted to speak to you privately. My hope is; you will take in to consideration the city's stellar reputation in the debt market and not do anything to damage that. I was hoping to confidentially shed light on my reasoning.

I do apologize that I am unable to accommodate your full request.

Best Regards,
Martin Matson
