A new symbol for Milwaukee.

A flag defined

A flag should be simple and readily made; it should be different from the flag of any other country, place or people; it should be significant; it should be readily distinguishable at a distance; the colors should be well contrasted and durable; and lastly, and not the least important point, it should be effective.

Milwaukee's three rivers flow from the land into the lake, with a large disc representing the city united and our brewing history.

“M” Star
DeChazier Stokes-Johnson

Four “M”s connect to form a cream-colored star representing Milwaukee on the blue lake, its Native American roots, and symbolizing the city’s bright future.

Cream City Star Jon Grider

The six points of the star symbolizes the three original sections of the city, its three rivers, representing Milwaukee as the “Cream City” and the largest in Wisconsin.

Sunrise Over the Lake Robert Lenz

The sun rising over Lake Michigan symbolizes a new day. The light blue bars in its reflection represent the city's three rivers (Milwaukee, Menomonee, Kinnickinnic) and three founding towns (Juneau Town, Kilbourn Town, Walker's Point). Gold represents our brewing history and white symbolizes unity.

Golden Arrow Chanya Hughes

Milwaukee's past, present, and future, moving in a positive direction, symbolized through its rivers, brewing history, and the lake, with white echoing the art museum.
