Subject: Equity Summit 2015 Is Heating Up! 30+ New Workshops, Over a Dozen New Speakers

EQUITY
SUMMIT
2015

All in for inclusion, justice, and prosperity
October 27-29, Los Angeles

This October, don't miss the opportunity to join 3,000 advocates, activists, policymakers, funders, and private sector partners for one of the largest conferences on racial and economic equity of the year!

New This Week:

- Take advantage of our end-of-summer pricing! From now until Labor Day, register for the Summit at early bird rates. For prices and further information, see our registration page.
- Session descriptions have arrived! Half of our 60+ Summit workshops have been added to our ever-growing agenda. Explore what the Summit has to offer, including multisector discussions on food justice and building economic opportunity, a conversation on the role of arts and culture in community development, and interactive sessions on how to put policy advocacy to work on police brutality, racial justice, and immigration reform.
- From protestors to policy wonks, a slew of new faces have joined Equity Summit 2015's dynamic cast of speakers, presenters, and performers. Here are just a few: Alicia Garza, Co-founder, Black Lives Matter movement; Pablo Alvarado, Director, National Day Laborer Organizing Network; Lisa Hasegawa, Executive Director, National Coalition for Asian Pacific American Community Development; Maya

Rockeymoore, President and CEO, Center for Global Policy Solutions.

Register Now

Information on speakers, mobile workshops, trainings, and more is updated regularly at www.equity2015.org. Check back soon — the other half of our Summit offerings will be published to the site next week!
