ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW APPEALS BARRY

The Board-Up on 06-21-2019 did not secure the premises i.e. the garage at 6202 N 106 street. I saw the small glass pane on the east end of the 6' by 16' garage door boarded up with an oversize  $\frac{3}{8}$ " thick piece of scrap plywood and 6 small screws & flat washers. It covered 1 &  $\frac{1}{2}$  panes. It couldn't have taken much time to do as the broken, jagged glass still in the pane & on the ground remained. There was another broken pane on the east end of the garage door next to the 36" by 69" entrance door for the garage. On closer observation, I found the hinged part of the hasp with the slot, hook, & padlock had been cut in half. All you had to do was give a slight push to the door and it went wide open. I machined a hard piece of steel to hold the two severed hinge pieces together with steel rivets. That is what secured the garage. I also boarded up all the remaining glass panes which only served to let in light which was not needed because the garage had electricity & lights inside.

Now let me relate what had occurred: a few days earlier, my good friend and neighbor, Brett Serry caught 3 young kids vandalizing my garage and called the Police. He said one of them broke the glass pane with a stick & were in no hurry to leave after he caught them. He also gave the police my name & cell phone number & he called me. He waited several hours before the police finally arrived. If they tried to call me, they used a secure phone that doesn't leave a phone number and they left no message. So I never heard from them and they reported the broken glass pane to the city Public Works Dept. My neighbors and I think that smacks of "job Security" and not a service to the citizens. We also think that $191 charge is outrageous and I also protest the $25 fee just to appeal it. It would not have cost me anything to report it to my Alderman. I am an 88 year old man living on social security and a small pension. I don't smoke or drink and live a frugal life and I would sincerely appreciate your consideration in this appeal.

Yours truly,
Brett Thompson
