You don't often get email from
Hello Tammy,

Thank you for your time yesterday to discuss the issue my daughter is having with the parking lot near the Intermodal Station

The address is 404 W. St Paul Ave and is run by a company called "Secure a Spot".

The issue is that my daughter paid for a parking spot on July 1 to park July 2

She paid $6 and has a receipt, there were no instructions regarding placing the receipt on the dashboard, which she thinks she did not do.

She then received a collections notice from a law firm saying she owes $65 for "no ticket on dash".

I am attaching the letter from the skanky attorney and also the receipt confirming that my daughter paid for the spot.

Thank you for your time

Thank you for using Secure-a-Spot!

This law firm represents the above Creditor concerning the above PARKING NOTICE and BALANCE DUE which is IN COLLECTION.

Although this letter is from a law firm, at this time no attorney has independently evaluated your case or made any recommendations regarding the validity of the creditor's claims or personally reviewed the circumstances of the Parking Notice and Balance Due. This law firm is acting solely as a debt collector and not in any legal capacity in sending this letter. This is an initial communication to collect a debt only.

This firm will assume the debt to be valid unless you notify this firm within thirty (30) days after receipt of this COLLECTION NOTICE that you dispute the validity of this debt, or any portion thereof. If you notify this firm in writing within the thirty (30) day period that you dispute the debt, or any portion thereof, this firm will obtain verification of the debt and the firm will send you a copy of such verification. Upon your written request within the thirty (30) day period, this firm will provide you with the name and address of the original creditor, if different from the current creditor.

You have the right to request in writing that a debt collector or collection agency cease further communication with you. A written request to cease communication will not prohibit a debt collector, collection agency, or creditor from taking any action authorized by law to collect the debt. Debt collectors or creditors may invoke specified remedies which debt collectors or creditors ordinarily invoke; an example of a specified remedy is reporting credit/consumer information to one or more credit/consumer reporting agencies after expiration of the thirty (30) day period, in accordance with applicable law.

Please identify the PARKING NOTICE NUMBER and your LICENSE PLATE NUMBER on ALL communications. Unless otherwise notified, contacting this firm via methods other than regular mail, e.g., email, fax or telephone, constitutes express consent to reciprocal future communications with you, including voice messages. Your opportunity to contact us or pay does NOT overshadow, negate, or abridge any of your thirty (30) day rights or affect the legal requirement to notify this firm of any dispute in writing in order to obtain verification of the debt.

Sincerely, Daniel B. Kelley, ESQ
