As a neighbor the patio area has been a problem for years, I the past I had a sit down with _____ alderman's staff. When there are bands outside the music & noise level are extreme (especially St Patrick's day). In the past I had to take PTO from work after these celebrations. People are on the patio sometimes as late as 1:30 am, and they are very loud at times. I have tried to reach out to the _____ at no avail. This behavior is unacceptable, and needs to be addressed. I understand this is a pub, however it's in a quiet neighborhood. I want the patrons/staff to be respectful when outside. I have tried to refrain from calling the police but I will if I have to. I'm not trying to destroy anyone's livelihood, but enough is enough.

Thanks for considering my issues.

I'm contacting you because of the noise on the patio after 11 until after midnight. It's becoming more consistent with the weather.

They also painted _____ without my permission, since I have no need to access the alley I wasn't aware of it until 2021. I contacted the liaison for this area who told me to contact the police, who referred me to you.

They also have live bands in the back, this year's St. Patty's wasn't bad. Previous years were terrible I even missed work because I couldn't sleep.

This has become a problem since the patio was installed, I had no idea that one was going back there. It's _____ l so I'm the person who is affected the most.

Is it true that they can have patrons on the patio until 2:30 am in a residential area.

Any assistance would be appreciated.
