

Dear City Clerk

9-17-13

My Name is Michael Thomas, and the reason for this letter is to notify you that I disagree with your decision, and this is my letter of appeal. I would like a meeting as soon as possible to discuss payment for my phone before further legal actions are taken, I'm not excepting you sending letters to my house while I was locked up as reason for you keeping my property. The Milwaukee Police is the one that took my property & me to jail, so they should have known I was still incarcerated & sent it to the house of correction where I was, so you'll know I'm prepared to file suit if possible. I'm not letting this go that's a promise I look forward to seeing you soon!!!!

Thank you for your time & effort in this matter.

Sincerely
Michael Thomas

To whom it may concern:

I am writing this letter in reference to my property being destroyed by The Milwaukee Police Department. I was in custody and upon my release, when I went to retrieve my personal belongings on March 29th of 2013 I was informed that the office in which I was to get my things was closed.

When I went back on April 1st of 2013 I was told that my phone had destroyed because I did not come to pick it up, which I would not have been able to do since they (the police department) had me in their custody.

So my property should not have been destroyed. I am requesting that I be reimbursed for the cost of the phone, since it was their error for destroying the phone in the first place. If possible I would like to have the memory card from the phone which contains precious video and photos from special family gatherings.

Thank you

Michael O. Thomas

With the success of the original HTC EVO 4G, we're pretty sure Sprint is excited about today's launch of the HTC EVO 3D

(<http://androidandme.com/2011/06/carriers/sprint/htc-evo-3d-initial-hands-on-impressions/>). Sprint's Premier customers have been playing around with HTC's new flagship handset for a few days already, but today marks the official launch of the HTC EVO 3D on Sprint's website and their retail stores nationwide.

Sprint is pricing the HTC EVO 3D at $199 with a qualifying voice and data plan. Full retail price is listed at $549.99. But if you're looking to save a little extra cash, we'd recommend checking out WireFly
