The applicant stated the homicide victim was never in the bar and it was closed at the time of the shooting. He stated he exited the bar when the guns were drawn and the shooting was occurring. He stated no one entered the bar with a weapon and there were no altercations inside the bar. He added he reached out to the community, including meeting with and calling community members, and even hosted block watch meetings at the bar. He stated the premises has been closed since the October incident.
Ald. Rainey stated the residents are concerned and he feels the applicant may have been dealt a bad hand. He stated having a homicide in your neighborhood is alarming and he knows the applicant runs a good establishment. He added that he is* willing to give him another opportunity to succeed and to mitigate the concerns of the residents. He recommends a 60 day suspension based on the police report.

Ald. Zielinski recommended hiring security and using an ID scanner.

12 JOST, Michael J, Agent for "LA CAGE ENTERPRISES, LLC", Class B Tavern and Public Entertainment Premises License Renewal Applications for "LA CAGE" at 801 S 2ND St. (Expires 12/17/2016)

The applicant stated he has new ID scanners and weapon wands. He has looked into getting security cameras and the cost is about $15,000 and he cannot afford it. He stated the use of wands and scanners has decreased the incidents in the premises. He added the younger age group causes more problems than before. He stated he has increased the amount of security guards. He stated he has a $6 cover charge. He added he tries very hard to watch for drugs, weapons, and fights. He added that he has considered hiring an outside security company. He stated he spoke with an officer at District 2 regarding the cameras because he could not afford them. He requested 2 months to get the security plan together. He stated any suspension would be detrimental to his business and to his employees.

Individuals also present:

Cpt Heather Wurth stated there were 2 additional recent incidents, and 5 nuisance related calls, most of the additional calls were proactive. She stated the applicant had since January 15th to put an abatement plan in place and still has not done so, which is concerning. She added that she is supportive of the premises, but it is a drain on police resources.

Bill Wardlow 811 S 2nd St stated the incidents have gotten progressively worse over the last few years. He added that the applicant has gotten more security. He stated he has called the police multiple times regarding the premises and those instances were not listed in the police report. He added that he has been told there were no squads available to respond to the incidents. He stated a bloody patron from the premises came in to his establishment and cleaned themselves up in the restroom and left blood all over. He stated he has seen fights in the streets multiple times. He stated he has witnessed fights where the police have been overwhelmed and he was told the police would not arrest people because no one wanted to press charges. He stated he, his staff, and his patrons do not feel safe because of the incidents at the premises. He added that he is supportive of the applicant and would like to see an improvement.

Ald. Zielinski recommended Mr. Wardlow offer advice to the applicant. He also recommended the applicant hire an outside consultant to help with the problems occurring at the premises.

Ald. Perez stated he is concerned that the applicant has not complied with the nuisance plan and does not have security cameras. He added something has to change at the premises because it is currently unmanagable.

Ald. Perez moved approval with a 10 day suspension based on the police report and neighborhood and police testimony. (Prevailed 4-0)

12 VELAZQUEZ, Angel M, Agent for "Changolion Productions, LLC", Class B Tavern and Public Entertainment Premises License Renewal Applications for "Kana Mojito Club" at 626 S 5TH St. (Expires 12/17/2016)

The applicant stated the fight occurred after hours and he had a staff meeting about it. He stated he does not know the victim and his staff does not know her. He stated he does not have underage patrons in his bar. The applicant stated he got ice for the victim and when he returned she was gone and that is why he did not call the police. He added the security guard who let the individuals in after hours was suspended for a week. He stated that this was just one incident and it is not common practice. He added that he is considering hiring a bathroom attendant. He apologized for not calling the police.

Appearing with the applicant:

Atty. Michael Whitcomb II stated the camera system was new in February and staff was unsure how to use and access it. He stated he applicant wasn't hiding anything and will err on the side of caution when calling the police. He added that the other incidents on the police report are really non-incidents. He stated the applicant was unaware of the severity of the incident. He stated that the applicant cooperated with the police and was not trying to hide anything. He added that the applicant's track record shows that he is a good operator.

Tony Nelson stated he is a security guard at the premises and he checked the IDs of the individuals involved in the fight. He stated a women told him there was a fight in the bathroom and he attempted to aprehend the people involved in the fight. He added he is not fimiliar with the individuals involved in the fight.

Rigoberto Delatorre stated he is the head of security at the premises and he let the individuals involved in the fight in after hours, but he does not know any of them.

Individuals also present:

Cpt Heather Wurth stated there have been 5 nuisance related calls for service during the license period, as well as other calls for service from residents and Ald. Perez. She added the victim and witness involved in the fight were 20 years old at the time, and the viciousness of the attack was egregious and caused severe injuries to the victim including a broken orbital socket, brain trauma, and lacerations. She stated the victim and her friend entered the premises at 11 PM, and the assailant and her friend were seen inside the premises at 1:30 AM. She added that the applicant never called the police after the fight occurred in the restroom.

Ald. Perez provided photos from Facebook of the underage victim inside the eastablishment in 2014.

Ald. Coggs moved to enter into the record as exhibit #1 the photos from Facebook. (Prevailed 3-0)

Ald. Perez stated he is surprised that the applicant did not call the police after the fight, especially having participated in the Pivot Program. He stated he is concerned that the applicant did not contact the police or call for medical attention regarding the fight. He stated something isn't being managed properly and this situation was handled poorly. He recommends nonrenewal or 60 day suspension.

Ald. Coggs stated that calling the police is the responsibility of the owner of the premises. She stated she is concerned that the staff was unaware that the individuals involved in the fight were in the premises earlier that evening, prior to being let in again after hours. She added that the Pivot Program was created to prevent incidents like this and the applicant went through the program and still decided not to call the police. She added that the video was hard to watch and assailant finding joy in injuring another person is despicable.

Ald. Zielinski moved approval with a 60 day suspension based on the police report, video, and police, applicant, and aldermanic testimony. (Prevailed 3-0)

12 STAIR, Sam, Agent for "S2 Real Estate, LLC", Rooming House Renewal Application for "S2 Real Estate" at 803 S 3RD St. (Expires 12/31/2016)
The applicant stated the tenant involved in the fight was asked to leave. He added that the person accused of drug dealing is not a drug dealer, he's a tattoo artist, so that's why he may look scary and believes it is a case of the complainant not knowing her neighbors. He stated that he monitors his security cameras remotely. He believes a lot of the problems are caused by a vacant property near by. He stated he believes there is one neighbor who just wants to shut him down. He stated once someone is evicted they are not allowed to rent again. He stated none of the neighbors have been harassed by the residents at the property and doesn't believe his residents are the problem. He added the neighbors have also tried to shut down the bar next door. He stated anything he can do to make the property better would benefit the neighborhood.

Individuals also present:

Cpt Heather Wurth stated the property became a nuisance property in January and the abatement plan was approved in August. There have been 45 nuisance related calls, and 87 total calls. There have been numerous complaints of drug dealing by residents and Ald. Perez. There is also concern because Bradley Tech High School is across the street. She added the calls for service have been for battery, theft, and fraud.

Ald. Perez stated there are several rooming houses in the area. He stated the vacant house is being restored to historic standards. He stated there is a disconnect between the applicant and the neighbors. He added that there are many rooming houses in the city that do not have these issues. He has not heard a good plan on how to deal with the issues. He does not support renewal.

Individuals present in opposition:

There were 5 people present in opposition.

Brian Farrell 813 S 3rd St stated there have been many instances of cars pulling up for transactions in front of the house. He added that there have been many ambulance calls to the property.

Dave Martin 828 S 3rd St stated he has seen drug trafficking occurring at the property. He stated the front door of the property is open all the time and it is a nuisance.

Individuals present in support:

Leah Steinborn, 803 S 3rd St #5 stated she moved into the building in April. She has been managing the building since October and the person suspected of drug dealing was evicted. He added that one of the people involved in the battery was also evicted. She added that the first door is open, but there is a second door with a lock.

Daniel Kemeny 4429 S 86th St stated his girlfriend lives there and he is not engaging in criminal activity.

Ald. Rainey stated he is concerned that the applicant hasn't taken ownership of the problems. He added there is no acknowledgement of problems described by neighbors or a plan of how to fix them.

Ald. Rainey moved nonrenewal based on the police report, and applicant, neighborhood, aldermanic, and police testimony. (Prevailed 2-1, Ald. Cogg's voting no)

The applicant stated he looked into the police report prior to applying for the license. He added that he contacted Ald. Murphy's office and neighbors in the area and offered to meet with them.

Appearing with the applicant:

Atty. Michael Maistelman stated the applicant has the option to purchase the building and there is nothing in the police report. He added the applicant lives and grew up in the neighborhood. He stated the applicant just needs a chance.

Individual also present:

Edwin Huertas - 10th District Legislative Assistant stated the previous owner still owns the building, the applicant has no bar experience, and is concerned the previous owner will continue to operate the business. He added Ald. Murphy is not in support because he believes the applicant is inexperienced and the previous owner is still involved.

Individuals present in opposition:

Jennifer Larson 3800 N 74th St stated she is opposed to having a bar in the neighborhood.

Lisa Falsetti 4171 N 70th St stated she has not seen anything positive about the bar. She stated having a bar in a residential area with food trucks is too noisy and will create litter.

Valarie Sauve 6730 W Vienna Ave stated the business in a residential area is not a good.

Brian Klobunde 6730 W Vienna Ave stated the previous premises has been a problem and this is not an appropriate place for a bar.

Kathy Hilety 6724 W Melvina stated the previous premise was always a problem and it's too close to a residential area and she agrees with the previous speakers.

Individuals present in support:

Donte Phillips Sr 6221 W Leon Terrace stated he frequented the previous establishment and it was a chill place in his age range because he doesn't like being around young people.

Alex Brown 4034 N 70th St stated he has no problems with patrons from the previous premises. He added a smoke shop opened on the corner and there have been shootings.

Ald. Zielinski stated the previous premises has had many issues which is why the City closed in down.
