I so sorry to keep bothering you but i can't get sleep just about every night because of this bar there customers sit outside the bar playing music early in the morning and disturbing the neighborhood.this isn't fair to the neighborhood that want to sleep,my sleep and anyone elses.just because they have conduct business it shouldn't be at our expense, they have a warning on there file,they have 10day suspension and me,rainey,police,and one of the owners had a meeting at villard library to talk about the problems and it's still happening. They don't respect decisions of the license board or rainey or the neighborhood they do what they want.is there anything you can do to make sure 10/15/2020 there licenses are taken?

INITIAL INVESTIGATION

Rodriguez, Rebecca J 022637

03/11/2020

This report is written by Police Officer Rebecca Rodriguez, assigned to District 7, Late Power Shift, and Squad 7468.

On Tuesday March 10, 2020 at approximately 11:09PM, my partner, PO Charles Scaife, and I responded to 4750 N Hopkins St in the City and Count of Milwaukee, regarding a possibly overdoes inside the tavern (Gold Diggers).

Upon arrival I observed Paratech parked on N. Hopkins Street with a patient in the rear. I spoke to the paramedic who stated that The Milwaukee Fire Department (MFD) responded to a subject who was unconscious inside the tavern and when they arrived they administered narcan to the subject who then awoke. The patient, who was later identified as Brian H. Clayton (B/M, 08/10/90) and works at the tavern as the door guard/tip handler.

When I spoke to Clayton he stated he had arrived to work at about 630pm-700pm. Clayton stated that before work he had smoked marijuana which he believed was less than a gram. Clayton stated when he arrived at work he began to setup the hookah, music, and money. Clayton stated he did smoke hookah while at work. Clayton stated he did not take any other drug today besides smoking the marijuana before work. Clayton stated he does have a lot of health issues and he does not take medication for that. Clayton stated he started to not feel well so he moved from the bar stool to the couch. Clayton stated he felt his heart slow down and that he passed out. Clayton stated the next thing he remembers is being woken up by MFD. Clayton again stated that he did not take anything else today. I asked Clayton if he takes any un-prescribed pills and he stated that on Monday morning at about 300am or 400am he took a rollie. Clayton stated he hasn't taken anything since then.

I then spoke to the bartender, Lakita D. Lewis (B/F, 10/17/74) who stated she arrived to work at approximately 700PM and Clayton was already at work. Lewis stated that when she saw him she thought he looked off. Lewis stated that Clayton seemed withdrawn. Lewis stated that she did not see Clayton do anything but just smoke hookah. Lewis did not have anything else regarding this incident.

I spoke to the owner, Michael Lyons (B/M, 04/27/78) who was not at the tavern at the time of the incident. I asked to view the security footage of when Clayton arrived at the tavern and Lyons showed me. While watching the footage I did not observe Clayton doing anything suspicious. Lyons stated that at about 10:15pm Clayton texted him stated that he did not feel good. Lyons stated he did not text anything else. Lyons did not have anything else regarding this incident. Lyons was extremely cooperative with the investigation.

INITIAL INVESTIGATION

Wallich, Rebecca J 022637

08/19/2020

This report is written by Police Officer Rebecca Wallich, assigned to District 7, Late Power Shift, and Squad 7468.

On Tuesday, August 18, 2020 at approximately 10:41PM, my partner PO Ka Kue and I responded to 4750 N Hopkins Street in the City and County of Milwaukee regarding a trouble with subject. Upon arrival I spoke to the caller/victim, whom verbally identified herself as Betty J. Grafton (B/F, 12/15/91). Grafton stated that Angela J. Evans (B/F, 05/13/82) came to her job and intentionally attempted to strike her to her face without consent while inside the tavern. Both Grafton and Evans are employees of the tavern.

Grafton stated that Evans never made contact with her but her actions of attempting to strike her made her fear for her safety. Grafton stated that Evans was then taken out of the tavern. Grafton stated Evans then went upstairs, (Grafton's residence) and poured bleach on her clothes without her consent.

On Wednesday, August 19, 2020, my partner Officer Ka Kue and I conducted follow up at 4750 N Hopkins Street in the City and County of Milwaukee regarding the disorderly conduct domestic violence incident from the previous night. Officer Kue and I met with the owner of Gold Diggers, Michael Ray, in order for us to watch video footage.

The video footage shows Angela J Evans (B/F, 05/13/82) enter the tavern and go over and speak with Betty J. Grafton. I observed Evans putting her finger and hands in Graftons face as Grafton was sitting at the end of the bar. After a couple minutes if Evans arguing with Grafton it is observed that security stepped in between Grafton and Evans. After security stepped in between it shows Evans attempted to strike Grafton, who was still sitting on a bar stool at the end of the bar. Evans never made contact with
