1 AN ACT to create 256.35 (7) (c) of the statutes; relating to: immunity for 911
2 call centers and dispatchers that transfer callers to the national 988 Suicide
3 and Crisis Lifeline.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill provides that any public safety answering point, more commonly known as a 911 call center, or dispatcher that transfers a caller to the national 988 Suicide and Crisis Lifeline is generally immune from civil liability for any outcomes resulting from the transfer.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

4 SECTION 1. 256.35 (7) (c) of the statutes is created to read:
5 256.35 (7) (c) 1. In this paragraph, “national crisis hotline” means the 6 telephone or text access number “988,” or its successor, that is maintained under
7 the federally administered program under 42 USC 290bb-36c.
8 2. Any public safety answering point or dispatcher that transfers a caller to

ASSEMBLY BILL 309SECTION 1
