This report is written by Police Officer KUKOWSKI, assigned to the License Investigation Unit, Days.

The Milwaukee Police Department's investigation regarding this application revealed the following:

1. On 08/07/15, Milwaukee police were performing an underage tavern enforcement initiative and had police aides, who were under the age of 21, enter liquor establishments in attempts to purchase alcohol. The police aide, along with an UC officer, entered Arts Performing Center located at 144 E Juneau without the doorman asking either one for ID as they paid the $20 cover charge. Once inside, the police aide ordered a Miller Lite for $3.00 at the bar. On Thursday August 11, 2015, a Milwaukee police Sergeant informed the bouncer that they failed and asked if they had an ID scanner, at which time the bouncer replied they did not.
