Business_Name: Los Jalisienses Express Milwaukee

Date: 10/21, but brought to my attention on 11/7

Description:

I work over in DPW in the storm water department. On 10/21 a DPW employee witnessed the Los Jalisienses Express Milwaukee food truck discharging process water and sink water into a storm drain on S 35th street in Milwaukee. The employee approached the operator of the truck and the dumping was halted. I am told that there was a bit of a language barrier, but the conversation the employee had the the operator of the truck made them believe this was how they disposed of their waste at this site. Rarely do we have any issues with food trucks in our role, so this is kind of new to us, but I figured this would be a health department violation. I am thinking of printing the Food Truck and Mobile Vendor brochures in English and Spanish to keep in our trucks if and when we come across this issue again we can hand them out, but if you have any guidance regarding these types of violations and if this is something the Health Department is interested in, I would love to hear back. Thanks, Ethan Ehler
