

KHALIL COLEMAN

4319 W. Congress St. 53218 | 414-551-7373 | changinlives1@live.com

SUMMARY

My educational and work experience is best described as a social entrepreneur; using my ability create social impact and sustain the impact through resources and tangible outcomes.

VOLUNTEER INVOLVEMENT

Occupy The Hood

- A national grassroots organization created to agitate, education, and organize around political / social justice.

Wisconsin Willing

- A street organization for community involvement engaged in areas of education, economics, political and social development.

WORK EXPERIENCE

April 2010

Founder, Changing Lives through Literature (CLTL)

- CLTL is an independent service provider and consultant contracted for instructional development. CLTL designed focus is using social impact causes to activate civic engagement in classrooms and various institutions.

May 2015

Co-Founder / Author, Safe Zone Initiative (SZI)

- SZI was created as an independent communal operation dealing in direct prevention, intervention, and de-escalation of neighborhood violence. SZI has received city support to establish zones in the City of Milwaukee.

EDUCATION

August 2010

Some College, Milwaukee Area Technical College, Teacher Education (Liberal Arts)

REFERENCE

Mark Doremus

Changing Lives through Literature – Media Relations , (262) 347-9280

Ald. Ashanti
Hamilton

City of Milwaukee – Safe Zone Initiative, (414) 286-2228

Dr. Marcus
Arrington

Milwaukee Public Schools – Principal, (414) 267-1505