I truly wish you could be on 5th & national to witness the club emptying out tonight. The noise and chaos are truly stunning. More stunning? --- looking out the windows at What look like city officers who are 'directing traffic' doing literally nothing to curb the chaos. It should be really fascinating to see how that will all work with an even more narrow street. Just the volume, not to mention the sheer calamity, should have you concerned. Yet it continues unchecked.

The 'officers' whether at taxpayer expense or private pay aren't controlling the situation. Not sure what the point is or why they are there under any circumstance.

So frustrating.

15. On 07/02/10 at 12:30 am, Milwaukee police conducted a License Premise Check at 715 S 5th Street. Prior to police arrival, officers received a confirmation email from Sgt. Paul Mac Gillis from the License Investigation Unit that the temporary restraining order that was against the City of Milwaukee was dismissed by Judge Brash as of Thursday June 24, 2010. While officers were on scene at 715 S 5th Street, they requested a supervisor to the location due to fact that the club did not have a license for music, disc jockey and dancing that was occurring inside the tavern. A supervisor responded and agreed with officers that the location should be closed for the night. Police identified the bartender as Wisam Asad and Wisam was advised that the business needed to be closed due to the violations. Wisam refused to comply and due to his behavior towards officers, was being held back by staff employees. Officers then spoke with Samer Asad who was asked to close the tavern. Samer stated, "No! Give me the citations I know I don't have a license but we still have a temporary restraining order." Samer further stated, "You can not be on the premise! I won't let you close me down!" After further discussions, Samer agreed he would close the location. Samer did provide officers with a court order for the temporary restraining order with a past court date of 06-19-10. An announcement was made shortly after using a microphone stating that, "if you were white there was nothing to worry about but if you were black you have to look out", which caused the crowd to become upset. Customers in the club were predominately black. When police questioned Wisam as to made the statement, Wisam stated a customer did and that a microphone was not used. Wisam became disorderly with police and was arrested. Police observed there to be about 50 patrons inside the club. Samer Asad became disorderly when he learned that his brother was arrested and was removed by his own security personnel in order to prevent Samer from being arrested. Police during the investigation did observe patrons dancing as well as the disc jockey and loud music being played. (not via internet streaming)

Officers attempted to enter Club Envy but were refused entry by a security guard identified as Robert Mitchell. Mitchell grabbed a microphone from his portable radio and announced that police were here. Mitchell then was physically moved by officers who proceeded to the VIP area. No patrons were found upstairs however Samer Asad and a female were found an office located on that floor. Officers spoke with Asad and asked to view surveillance in attempts to see if the wanted felon was in the club. Asad refused stating that police have no right to look at the monitors. Asad then proceeded to walk over to the monitor and turn it off, obstructing officers' attempts to locate and arrest a felony suspect. Asad then stated to police, "Get the fuck out of my office. If I don't want you to look at the security cameras then you can't look." Asad further stated that if officers didn't leave his office, he would file a police report stating that the officers had stolen $10,000. Asad then proceeded to pull out a official Milwaukee Police Department citizen complaint form from his desk and stated to officers that if they left now he wouldn't file a report. Officers ask Asad if it was his intention to file a false police report and Asad replied, "Yes". Asad was advised he would be arrested if he filed a false police report, to which Asad replied, "Prove it". Officers asked the DJ to stop playing music until the investigation was completed and the DJ complied, turning off the music. This enraged Asad who ordered that the music be turned back on which it was. Asad was then arrested and conveyed to District Two for processing. Due to the uncooperativeness of both Mitchell and Asad, police were unable to investigate the subject wanted complaint. No charges were found in CCAP for Asad and a citation that was issued to Mitchell for refusing police entry was not found in the Municipal Court system.

This subject when approached by police was uncooperative and began to fight with police. Once the situation was under control, the subject admitted that she was involved in a fight but didn't know who hit her and that her reaction was to fight back. She also admitted that she was very intoxicated and was ashamed of her actions. The subject was cited for disorderly conduct and resisting/obstructing an officer. An officer who witness the fight and assisted in breaking it up also cited the other party involved. While this was occurring, subjects in autos stopped to watch the incident with 25-30 patrons from Club Envy standing in front of the club. They were advised by officers to leave the area in which they complied. Samer Asad was also observed to be outside on the sidewalk videotaping. Police to also asked Asad to leave the sidewalk area to which he stepped inside the front door of his club. Asad kept the door ajar and would step back out onto the sidewalk taunting police. Asad was arrested for obstructing and processed at District Two.

As more patrons left the club, traffic congestion was observed due to patrons who were walking in the roadway. Officers observed security personnel standing in the front of the club and not attempting to move patrons along. Congestion became so bad that an officer called for additional units to help assist with moving traffic and pedestrian traffic along. Within 20 minutes, the area was cleared. Officers then observed the licensee Samer Asad come out onto the sidewalk and video record police while he was attempting to provoke a negative interaction. An officer advised Asad that a report would be filed but Asad refused to acknowledge police.

The victim stated the guard then positioned her up against the wall and began to kiss her face, neck and breasts area. The victim pointed out the guard and he was identified as Henry Blancovitch. Police attempted to interview Blancovitch who refused to talk with police and requested an attorney. On scene, police also spoke to Samer Asad who stated as soon as the victim brought the incident to his attention, he called police at the request of the victim. PA-33E Narrative

This report is written by P.O. Kevin VODICKA assigned to District Two, Early Shift. On Wednesday, September 9, 2015, at or about 12:53 pm, Squads 2266 (P.O. Matthew DIENER and P.O. Efrain CORNEJO) and 2268 (P.O. Guadalupe VELASQUEZ and I) assisted Wisconsin Department of Revenue Agent Georgeann KING with a licensed premises inspection at Jynx, located at 715-717 S 5th St Milwaukee WI.

Officers arrived at the closed business and met with the general manager, William DANIEL (M/B 07/06/79) who does not hold any valid City of Milwaukee licenses. DANIEL was cooperative and allowed access to the building for inspection. A short time later the agent, Samer L ASAD (M/W 06/22/82), arrived on scene and was cooperative with officers and Agent KING.

The inspection revealed eight (8) contaminated liquor bottles and unreported tobacco purchases. ASAD informed Agent KING that he would be supplying her with the needed invoices and was expecting a tax bill regarding the purchases. Agent KING also referred ASAD to a licensed tobacco wholesaler for future purchases.

No other violations were observed.

As officers were leaving the premises, SGT SARNOW approached ASAD and asked that he check his surveillance cameras for any possible video related to a robbery that may have occurred close to the premises. ASAD later emailed officers after reviewing the video and not observing any of the described actors or vehicles during the described times.
