This report is written by PO Penny BROWN assigned to the License Investigation Unit. On Friday, 05/10/13 at approximately 10:15a.m., I was checking taxi's for violations at Potawatomi Bingo located at 1721 W Canal St.

I introduced myself to the driver of American United #275, and requested to see his P.P.V. and driver's license, to which he provided. I then requested to see his daily trip record and safety inspection checklist. The driver (Olawale A AKINDLE-OBE) was able to provide the daily safety checklist, however did not yet have his trip record filled out and explained he just started his shift. I also observed there were no complaint forms that were easily accesible to passengers in the rear passenger compartment. AKINDLE-OBE explained that he just got his vehicle back from maintenance and the carrier for the complaint forms had been removed. AKINDLE-OBE stated he would replace it today. I advised AKINDLE-OBE that if I stopped him again for the above listed violation(s), he would be cited.

Subject: Taxi complaint filed by

Please add the following complaint to the file of cab #405; Yellow Cab.

On Saturday August 16, 2014 at approximately 10:55pm Yellow Cab #405 arrived at the curb of the Hilton Milwaukee City Center at 509 W. Wisconsin Avenue. Hilton Doormar notified the cab to open the door for the guest. Doormar overheard and intervened in a conversation between the passenger; a hotel guest and the Taxi driver. The Driver was demanding a fare of $20.00 for the ride from Summerfest Grounds (Irish Fest) to the hotel. He did not run his meter for the fare and was requiring cash. The guest stated that the taxi ride to the grounds was under $10 with tip. The guest refused to pay the $20 fare but did hand the driver an unknown amount of currency and exited the cab. There was no further dialogue between guest and driver. Doormar notified the driver that he would be filing a complaint to which the driver responded "mind your own business".

On behalf of the [redacted] I would request that this complaint be placed on file and be considered upon driver's request to renew his rights to operate a taxi in the city of Milwaukee.

Respectfully,

ilwaukee

RE: Mohammad Zaman PPV License #0199937

Dear Ms. Grill

The individual referenced above has been expelled from _____ effective immediately after he became extremely violent in our office while we were attempting to investigate a very serious complaint lodged against him by one of our customers.

Mr. Zaman's rage became so violent, smashing his fists against windows and charging at our glass lobby door in an attempt to break it down all the while threatening to physically assault that several of our employees who witnessed his actions were terrified enough to call 911.

Because the nature of the customer complaint is consistent with his behavior in our office, we have serious concern for the safety of passengers in his cab, and feel compelled to notify you of our concerns immediately.

Yours Truly,

Dear Jonathan:

My husband, _____ and I are filing a formal complaint about our experience with a Yellow Cab driver on Monday, Sept. 15th. Below is the letter he wrote to Yellow Cab, as instructed by Manager Elizabeth Jackson. She suggested we contact you, and when we did, we were told to email our complaint. Here it is below.

----- Forwarded message -----

Date: Mon, Sep 15, 2014 at 12:44 PM
Subject: Complaint re: Taxi #243
To: info@yellowcabmilwaukee.com
Cc: _____

Dear Elizabeth,

I am writing to follow up on our phone conversation.

My wife _____ and I called a Yellow Cab to return home from the clinic across the street from the Orthopedic Hospital in Glendale (575 W. River Woods Parkway) at approximately 11:20am, and were picked up by Taxi #243 around 11:30. I did not get the driver's name, but his phone number is (414) 628-2656.

The behavior of this driver was completely outrageous:

1. My wife has a broken ankle and is using a small scooter to get around. After assisting her getting into the cab, and placing the scooter in the back of the van, the driver attempted to leave without me. I had to bang on the window to get him to stop.

2. The driver had his window open. My wife was feeling cold and politely asked him to close the window. She had to ask three times before he did it, and it clearly upset him.

3. When we arrived, as she was getting out of the cab (which she has to do slowly and carefully) the driver closed the automatic door and it hit her bad leg. He was looking back at her before doing so and I can only assume he did it on purpose.

4. We both yelled at him to stop closing the door. After we were both out, he yelled "I will pray to God that you break your other leg!"

This man should not be driving a cab, or doing anything else where he interacts with customers. While I realize the cab drivers are independent contractors, I don't think you want someone like this representing your company. I hope that the actions of this driver will be reviewed and appropriate action taken.

As you suggested, I will also be calling the Taxi Licensing Department once you have confirmed receipt of this message and identified the driver involved.

I appreciate your assistance with this matter. I can be reached at Best Regards.
