Budget amendments approved by the Finance and Personnel Committee were considered first.

Amendment 1A (Omnibus)

This amendment adds $76,000 and position authority for six 0.5 FTEs to the Common Council-City Clerk for a fill-in pool of Legislative Assistants. The amendment creates a new Special Fund in the Common Council-City Clerk to purchase cameras to record illegal dumping, and provides $50,000 to fund it. The amendment adds $10,000 to establish 2 dedicated early voting sites for the Election Commission. The amendment adds $750,000 to the Library to establish a pilot program providing Sunday hours. The intention is for Central to be open from January - December 2024 , 1 p.m. – 5 p.m. every Sunday. Two other branches will be open on Sundays from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m. starting July 1.

The amendment provides position authority for 5 positions and $118,444 in funding for 2 new Residential Code Enforcement Inspectors with the intention of dedicating their time to inspecting properties managed by the Housing Authority of the City of Milwaukee. This amendment adds $50,000 to the Police Department to establish 2 additional soft rooms, dedicated spaces for survivors of domestic violence to make a report, with one each on the North side and South side. The amendment reduces Police Squad car purchases by 15 and reduces levy support by $1,000,000.

The amendment reduces the Damages & Special Claims Special Purpose Account, administered by the City Attorney, by $1,100,000. The amendment reduces the One Milwaukee Citizen-Led Transformation Fund Special Purpose Account by $2,600,000. The amendment creates a new Special Purpose Account for Lead Paint Abatement Loans, to be administered by the Department of Administration's Community Development Grants Administration, and provides $750,000 to fund it. The amendment increases $500,000 in cash levy support to the Commercial Corridor Investment Program. The amendment increases bonding authority by $1,000,000 for the Police Department to purchase 15 squad cars.

The amendment increases $750,000 in cash levy support for High-Impact Paving. The amendment increases $250,000 in cash levy support for Street Improvements – Sidewalk, Driveway Curb and Gutter – Replacement. The amendment increases $500,000 of cash levy support for Multimodal Transportation to fund traffic calming infrastructure. The amendment increases $250,000 of cash levy support for Bike Infrastructure. The amendment increases $100,000 of cash levy support to the MKE Plays Initiative, intended to be dedicated to the Swing Park.

The amendment increases $250,000 of cash levy support to Production & Planting Program-Trees, Shrubs, Evergreens – Paving Sidewalk Construction & Blvd Plantings, with the intention to dedicate $50,000 of this funding to a forestry apprenticeship program to be managed in consultation with Northcott Neighborhood Association with the expectation that there will be a $50,000 matching grant from the Community Development Block Grant. This amendment increases $250,000 of cash levy support for the Stump Removal program. This amendment increases debt service by $25,000. This amendment expends the $20,000 in increased revenue already recognized by the Comptroller.
