

ROBERT JOSEPH

PERSONAL

- Born and raised in metro Milwaukee
- Resident of the City of Milwaukee (in the Historic Third Ward)
- Married to Kami, an elementary school teacher in the Milwaukee Public School System

EDUCATION

- Graduate of University School of Milwaukee, K-12
- B.S. degree in Real Estate from the University of Arizona

PROFESSIONAL

- Started as on-site construction expeditor
- Founder and Principal of Joseph Property Development, LLC in Milwaukee
- Developed multiple properties in the City of Milwaukee including projects in the Third Ward at 191 Broadway, 525 E. Chicago, 249 N. Water, 117 N. Jefferson, and currently 301 Broadway (the future home of Anthropologie)
- Developed over 400 units in suburban Milwaukee and outlying areas including current projects at Twin Bridges in the village of Jackson and Fox Lake in the City of Waukesha

CIVIC

- Member of the board of directors at MIAD (Milwaukee Institute of Art and Design)
- Active in numerous philanthropic and non-profit organizations
- Member of the Historic Third Ward Association