Dear Ald. Perez,

I want to bring to your attention a "common" practice at Taqueria el Toro. I am not a frequent client but each time that I have been there, I get an extra $2-3 charge on the check which is taken off when I point it out. This last Saturday I got an extra $2 charge on the check again. This time I was told that it was the tip, that they charge it in advance and that the menu says so. I asked the lady to give me the cash register receipt (attached) and to write the word "TIP" on the item. I usually tip 20% but they decided that $2 were good enough. I am not bothered by the dollar amount, it is the dishonest practice that I believe is common now because this time was a different lady who handled it. I wonder how many patrons get extra charges, for how much and how many really notice it.

Sincerely,

Carmen,

Please see the below. Can you gently advise this truck operator that they need to leave the block after 2 hours and can't return for another 6 hours and if they don't do that, there is a possibility that their license could be non-renewed.

Thanks

We would appreciate that. Parking services has gone out to speak with them in Spanish at least twice.

If they comply and restore goodwill with neighbors, they will definitely have an easier time next year. We love food trucks but this one is consuming too much public employee time and we don't have a ton of it as you know. I hope that they can do better.

Hi all,

I am having a problem with resolving this issue for our constituent via parking enforcement. The food truck Taqueria El Toro has a very loud generator and is parking across from residences for 12 hours a day on Chase Ave. Can DNS, MPD, or Licensing please assist in having this truck move on a regular basis or even better, get a generator that does not cause a major disruption for residents? We are open to changing the ordinances to allow enforcement, so please don't hesitate to suggest any ordinance changes that would assist with making it possible to enforce for this sort of problem.

This food truck is still an issue! There was no issue, until 7/12/23, when a parking checker moved it here. Why, after it was parked for over a year and a half a block away? I have been filing complaints all week. The parking checker told him he had to move every couple hours, so this week, that is what he has been doing. Moving forward for 3 or 4 hours and then backing up back here. Today, he has been across here since 1:00, now it is 6:11 p.m. I put in the complaint #C2323588 at 3:10 p.m. Watched the parking checker come by at 5:21 p.m.; pull up past the food truck, never come out of the truck, sit for about 5 minutes, and then leave. Then they send me an email that the issue was resolved. How can that be if now, it is an hour later (6:23 p.m.) and the truck is still here? It doesn't pay to complain again, because the checker won't get here before 7:00, when he no longer has to move.

Why can't Marina do anything about this? And if she can't, tell me who can? Why does he have the right to bother me, but I have no rights to get him moved? The city moved it here, and I heard the city parking checker tell him how to beat the system, but now again, he is not complying with the posted parking signs.

Please tell me who to contact to get this food truck moved away from across from my house. No one wants to or should have to listen to this generator from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. 6-7 days a week!!!!

My understanding is he is allowed to be on the street, but may not stay in the same spot for more than two hours so you won't need to listen to that generator in front of your house all day, ideally. He must be parked 50 feet away from any store or restaurant entrance as well. If they're not moving along, please continue to alert parking with a food truck complaint. At some point he will get it.

Too good to be true. He (the food truck) is back!!! He started a little further up the road at 10:45, just at the end of the piggly wiggly building. at 1:09, he backed up a little bit, and at 2:00, he backed up back across the street from my house. Filing a report with the parking checker doesn't seem to work. They come out, talk to him, and close their case. Now he is playing games. What do I need to do to get him out of here for good? If he is here past 4, I will contact the parking checker again.

As you said, I did go ahead and file a complaint with the parking enforcement, but I don't know what they will do considering it was a City of Milwaukee Parking Checker that moved it here! I know if Marina herself would put in the complaint, or even send Milwaukee Police there, they would do something faster than me trying to get them here. Alderman complaints are handled as soon as possible!

Apparently, this is the food truck's new parking spot as he has come back everyday since Wednesday from about 10:45 a.m. to 10:10 p.m.

Choose the "food truck" option and the complaint goes directly to parking enforcement team driving around. It is the promptest way to get action.

Darn, I just drove by a while ago and saw him moving and presumed he was trying to be in compliance for us. There even was a vehicle parked in the no parking area at the time they passed. At 6:42, Officer Gutowski called me and said "they drove by and it wasn't loud enough to have them move". They never got out of the car to speak to the food truck. I asked him to come to my house to talk to me and listen to the noise and he said no.

I called your office at 11:36 a.m. yesterday, I was told they were not supposed to be there more than 2 hours and they would have enforcement come and give them the letter stating the rules.

This seems to be the new permanent home for this food truck. I do not want to listen to this generator all day and night. I do not want the bright lights shining in my living room when it gets dark, which gets earlier everyday. What do I have to do to get it moved away from across from my house?

The food truck is parked in a 2 hour parking zone. On Wed. it was here from 1:52 p.m. until 10:08 p.m. when it finally left. Yesterday, 7/13, it was here from 10:40 a.m. until 10:08 p.m. Today he pulled up at 10:50 a.m. Cars pull up and park behind him in a signed no parking area and in the crosswalk.

This seems to be the new permanent home for this food truck. I do not want to listen to this generator all day and night. I do not want the bright lights shining in my living room when it gets dark, which gets earlier everyday. What do I have to do to get it moved away from across from my house?

Case #:233570103

OtherEvent #: 23-LP-4117

On Thursday, December 14th 2023, At 8:41 PM, P.O. Maritza REYES and I were dispatched to the address of 551 W. Historic Mitchell St (Located in the City and County of Milwaukee, WI) for a for a threat call for service.

Upon our arrival we observed a cook standing at the front door of the restaurant. When he let us in, we spoke to the waitress who identified herself as Cecilia MARTINEZ (W/F 02/10/1994) who stated a known subject entered the restaurant who has been known to order food, eat the food and run out prior to paying. The subject sat at a table and attempted to order food, MARTINEZ took the subjects order and after his order was taken, they requested to pay prior to his order being made due to him being known to eat and leave without paying. This caused the subject to become upset and the subject started yelling and throwing plates at workers.

My partner spoke to licensed premise the owner identified as Toribio MARTINEZ-PEREZ (W/M 11/02/1978). He provided video regarding the incident and told officers he received a telephone call regarding the incident and was coming to the location to provide officers with video surveillance. P.O. REYES reviewed the video footage and should be captured on officers body worn cameras that were activated at the time of reviewing footage.

I reviewed video surveillance footage. The footage showed the subject seated at a table and a waitress approaches and takes his order. After the order is taken words are exchanged but not heard due to no audio capturing capabilities, the waitress walks away. The subject follows shortly after appears to be upset and pacing back and forth. The subject is seen throwing plates into the cooking station and eventually leaves.

The restaurant wishes that the subject not return and citations to be issued. At this time the subject is an unknown individual, and they were advised to contact police if he returns to contact police services so citations could be issued.

This report is written by PO Ryan KRANZ, assigned to District 2 Late Power Shift, Squad 2442.

On Tuesday December 19th, 2023, at approximately 01:55 AM, I was advised by Squad 2416 (SGT MEJIAS) to follow up with a complaint of a business serving alcohol after hours. I responded to 551 W Historic Mitchell St which is located in the City and County of Milwaukee.

Upon our arrival I observed two individuals seated at the front bar with food and drinking Modelo Beers. I also observed three other individuals seated at a table who did not appear to have any alcohol with their food. We did not observe any other alcohol or empty alcohol containers anywhere in the restaurant.

PO GAMINO spoke to Pascuela MARTINEZ (W/F 04-28-1968) who was a server at the restaurant. MARTINEZ gave us the license information for the restaurant.

While on scene, I observed the licenses posted on a pillar behind the front counter and they were up to date.
