

Randy Bryant
2022 E. Lafayette Place
Milwaukee, WI 53202
414-224-7778

Biography

Randy Bryant was born and raised in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Bryant graduated from Boys Technical and Trade High School in 1975. He was educated in the University of Wisconsin system receiving his B.A. from U.W. Parkside in Labor & Industrial Relations and Cultural Anthropology in 1980. Bryant also attended Kellogg School of Management and Wharton School of Management where he focused on International Business.

Bryant has more than twenty (20) years of business experience developing international markets, strategic planning and P & L responsibilities. During his tenure at Motorola, he was assigned to executive posts in London, England; Barcelona, Spain; and Sao Paulo, Brazil. He served in a variety of corporate international operations capacity: Director - Vice President, Strategic Alliance - Joint Ventures and New Business Creations: created equity investments and managed service opportunities for Europe and Africa; President - General Manager, INOSET (International Network Operations Servicio Especial Telecomunicaciones) - Sao Paulo, Brazil: a Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Motorola - developed Brazilian marketplace creating a paging and wireless data culture while nurturing entrepreneurial business opportunities. Director - Latin America and Caribbean, Messaging Information and Multi-Media Operations - Sao Paulo: managed the profitability of Motorola owned companies in Brazil, Argentina, Chile, Mexico, Costa Rica, Puerto Rico and Uruguay. Corporate Strategist for Latin America and Caribbean.

From 1979 to present, Bryant owns, restores and leases historically significant homes on Milwaukee's east side. Randy Bryant is a Preservationist and Architectural Historian. He is Chairman of the Board for Ten Chimney's Foundation, President - Milwaukee County Historical Society, Chairman - Buildings and Institutions Committee - Water Tower Landmark Trust, Board Member: Preserve Our Parks and American Heritage Society.