To The City Attorney:

I, Ruth Ward would like to appeal your decision on my claim for damages done to my fence by the MFD on March 17, 2006. For the following reasons.

- (1) I'm 82 yrs old. I have my sis. living with me. She is 78 yrs old. my disabled son also lives with me. He is 49. We're all on fixed incomes.
- (2) I had the fence put up because of vandalism & theft. which, has happened on more than on occasion, before the fence, was installed.
- (3) The fence worked as a security for us. There is no able-bodied man in the house.

My back yard is open & there are three cars & a tool shed in my yard. I'm afraid that the vandalism and theft will start all over again.
I fear for our safety.

There is no way that I can afford to replace the fence.

I'm asking you to please reconsider your decision. I don't know anyone else to turn to.

Sincerely,
Ruth Ward
