This report is submitted by Officer Kevin Becker assigned to District Four, Early Shift.

On Monday, March 7th, 2022, I, Officer Kevin Becker and Officer Jose Ramirez were assigned to Squad 4240 in full duty uniform, a marked Milwaukee police squad and affixed with AXON worn body cameras. At approximately 6:59 PM we were dispatched to a "Call for Police" at the address of 7335 W. Good Hope Rd. which is located in the City and County of Milwaukee. This location is a "Wing Stop" restaurant which is affixed with interior and exterior surveillance cameras.

Upon arrival we were greeted inside the restaurant by the two parties involved. One of which was identified verbally as Brianna D. MOSBY (F/B 02/23/2005), including many of her family members, and Mahaginey J. SEMONS (F/B 11/12/2004) also accompanied by her family members. Both parties informed me that a customer earlier had entered the restaurant and ordered food from MOSBY (who was acting cashier). The customers inquired about the amount of time spent to cook the food and the wait time. A verbal argument ensued between the customer and MOSBY after the customer "snatched" the food from MOSBY's hand. SEMONS and MOSBY continued the argument and were being physically held back from fighting by the two supervisors that were inside the restaurant. One of which was still on scene and identified as Wanda J. LAVENDER (F/B 08/22/1981). LAVENDER was holding SEMONS back while another manager (not on scene) held back MOSBY. At some point during this incident, MOSBY stated she started to push and shove the manager holding her back away out of frustration and may have been pushing his chest area according to MOSBY. MOSBY admitted to striking a nearby picture frame shattering the glass. MOSBY refused medical regarding but was icing her fist. After striking the picture frame, both SEMONS and MOSBY were requested to leave the store due to the physical altercation they were attempting to engage in with the customer. Officers would arrive shortly after with MOSBY and SEMONS both inside the store.

I then spoke with the manager on scene, LAVENDER who gave the same incident statement however stated they were both good employees but has to abide by her manager (DETLOFF) who wanted them to leave the restaurant. LAVENDER stated that the other manager who was shoved left the store due to having chest pains from MOSBY pushing him. LAVENDER did not have access to the cameras inside the restaurant.

I would notify the District Manager of this situation via telephone (number provided by LAVENDER). The District Manager was identified verbally as Matthew T. DETLOFF (M/W 01/18/1988). I informed DETLOFF of the statements I received from all parties and informed him that all parties were inquiring about a corporate phone number. DETLOFF provided me with the manager above his position which I would later relay to all parties regarding. DETLOFF agreed to meet with the parents the following day to review surveillance cameras. DETLOFF requested at that present time all parties involved leave the restaurant with pending termination for the two employees involved.

Two City of Milwaukee Community Contact Cards were issued to both parties of the employees and were informed of DETLOFF's decision.

DETLOFF made no mention or request for any charges regarding the shattered picture frame and just requested the two employees leave the facility.

The irate customers were not on scene upon police arrival.

All parties involved in the incident left the scene without incident.

Nothing further to report.

Hi Meg,

I got your email wrong the first time I sent this out. Below you will find my email response to the district manager at Wingstop. It has all of the details on the unprofessional service I received. I'm glad that I exercise patience.

Another person may not have walked away after being treated so poorly. As bad of a situation this was, it could have become 100 times worse with less tolerant patron.

Take care and thanks for helping me navigate next steps on this matter.
