INITIAL INVESTIGATION

Finley, Jason T 029192

10/31/2021

This report is written by Police Officer Jason FINLEY, assigned to District Four, Late Power Shift, Squad 4431.

On Sunday, October 31, 2021 at approximately 4:21 PM myself (in full duty uniform, marked MPD squad, and equipped with AXON 3 body camera) volunteered to meet Squad 4214 Sergeant Gregory HUNTER regarding and injured person (work place injury) and 6000 West Silver Spring Drive (Family Dollar) located in the City and County, State of Wisconsin.

Upon arrival, I met with the victim, verbally identified as Jessica JAIMES (f/b, 05/04/88) at the front of the store. While speaking with JAIMES I observed a laceration that was bleeding above the left eyebrow.

JAIMES stated she was the on-duty manager of the store, and was working in Aisle 13 restocking shelves. JAIMES stated while she was pushing a large cart down the aisle, the cart struck an overhead camera that was hanging from the ceiling which is used to prevent shoplifting from the store. JAIMES stated when the cart struck the camera, the camera fell from the bracket on the ceiling and struck her in the head.

JAIMES stated she yelled for help once it occurred and another employee had come to her aid, later identified as Braxton L. DODD (f/b, 10/11/96) and called 911.

JAIMES stated there were no witness to the incident, but stated the incident should be on camera, as the camera that fell on her was operational.

JAIMES stated the camera was just recently installed within the past two weeks or so, and stated there was a customer that also struck the camera approximately two days ago and she believes that it may have been loose from that incident and that is why it had fallen today.

JAIMES stated she has only been working at Family Dollar for several months, and could not remember exactly when she started. JAIMES stated she has not ever had any prior work related injuries.

JAIMES stated she did not lose consciousness, and declined any medical attention on-scene. JAIMES stated she was not feeling well from the incident and stated she was going to go to an area hospital (possibly St. Joseph's) for medical attention once her ride was able to pick her up.

The Milwaukee Fire Department Engine 9 and MED 16 did respond to the scene, but left prior to police arrival. JAIMES stated she asked paramedics if the laceration was going to require stitches, and they told her they did not believe so.

OtherEvent #: 21-LP-1929

I took a total of 14 digital photographs depicting the location of the incident and the injury sustained to JAIMES.

JAIMES was instructed to contact police if she did seek additional medical treatment and to advise if there were any injuries.

JAIMES was issued a PV-17 and a Community Contact Card and instructed to contact police if she had any questions or further information regarding the incident. A PV-17 was also left for the store manager to contact police regarding the incident if there were any questions.
