66	MPD-300--MPD/Global	17-E036	Police Monitoring & Surveillance Recordings--Potential Incident	Surveillance video captured from MPD building security cameras and pole surveillance cameras, on which a potential incident has been identified. Recordings may be transferred to other appropriate MPD schedules if the content on the audio or video recordings is needed for evidentiary purposes to adjudicate criminal cases. This schedule should NOT be used for footage recorded by body-worn cameras, dashboard cameras, or as part of an interrogation. Box 16: Wis. Stat. § 19.36(2).	Amend	Creation	4 mos	DUS	Amended to reflect change in state policy re: surveillance recordings.
67	MPD-300--MPD/Global	93-0019	Missing Persons Report-Adult	Reports and supplementary material taken by MPD officers related to missing persons per MPD Standard Operating Procedure 180, including the Certification form, record of transfer to the National Crime Information Center, followup reports, audits, return reports (if applicable), and other records related to the missing persons case. 68	MPD-300--MPD/Global	61-0043	Vicious Animal Report	Form PV-1 and supplementary material related to animal bites or other reported harmful behavior. The form itself includes information about the circumstances of the bite, including the reporting officer, the owner (if known), the location of the report, record of actions taken to subdue the animal if necessary and any other information related to the incident.	Amend	Creation	2	DUS	Moving series to Police Global.
69	MPD-300--MPD/Global	23-0034	Police Surveillance Recordings-No Incident	Monitoring and surveillance recordings created on police building cameras or pole cameras, on which no incident has been identified. If footage is determined to be relevant to a claim, it should be extracted from the main recording and maintained according to RRDAs relevant to the claim or litigation. Because of the nature of police work, the retention period on this footage has been extended from the 3-day retention on non-police recordings (RRDA 22-0006) to 10 days after creation to provide extra time for review. This schedule does not apply to footage recorded by police body cameras, dash cameras or related police devices.	NEW	Creation	0	Destroy	New Schedule to reflect changes in statewide surveillance retention practice.
