

Black Male Achievement Advisory Council
CDBG Milwaukee Promise Program Funding Recommendations

ORGANIZATION	FUNDING RECPMMENDATION
---------------------	-----------------------------------

The ALMA Center

$75,000

Fund an Intensive Trauma Resolution specialist to improve the emotional, social, spiritual, physical and economic health of at least 52 African American men by providing training on how to resolve issues arising from personal and historical experiences of trauma.

Center for Self Sufficiency

$50,000

Fund Black Male Achievement data collection, analysis and reporting.

Milwaukee Area Technical College

$150,000

Create a Black and Latino Male Transition & Dual Enrollment Hub within Marquette University's Center for Urban Research, Teaching and Outreach to help Black and Latino boys and men successful transition from high school to college, high school to job, college to college and college to job.

Youth Justice Milwaukee

$75,000

Establish and operate a Mobile Resource Center to connect boys and men of color; and young people in disadvantaged neighborhoods with resources to assist with job readiness, access to health and dental care, affordable housing, parenting skills, justice system issues, driver's license recovery, opportunities for higher education, child care, financial literacy and other resources available to need basic needs and stabilize lives.