CITY CLERK

June 2, 2001

To Whom It May Concern:

I am appealing your decision on not to repair my property. Due to the fact that this situation had nothing to do with me personally, I did not know the suspect that was being chased. Although the pursuit ended up on my property and the officer chose to kick the door in he didn't have to but that was the officer's way of capturing the suspect because of his hasty action, the city is liable.

There must be a ruling on this type of situation when an officer destroys property of a citizen that had nothing to do with the crime being committed. The city becomes liable for its mistake. I know you have coverage for this type of situation.

Please explain why I have to accept a costly expense where I wasn't at fault and it had nothing to do with me. Lt. Michael Robertson, the officer in command, assured me that the city would take care of the damage caused to my property by this officer, the door has to be replaced and it is only fair that the city take care of this inconvenient loss that has occurred.

Thank You

Clara Lee
