Hello,

I took a group of coworkers in yellow cab number 501 today. We were treated and spoken too very disrespectfully by the driver after we asked to pay with a credit card. He was combative and repeatedly told us the cab card system was not working. When we pressed him on how this is unacceptable based on the rules, he continued to yell at us which is uncomfortable as a group of young women to be screamed at by a stranger.

Thank you,

To whom it may concern

I recently received an email regarding Anthony Austin and his request to receive a Public Passenger Vehicle License with the City of Milwaukee. Mr.

Austin is currently on supervised release for Being a Felon in Possession of a Firearm and is scheduled to discharge from supervision on 1/11/20. It would not be a violation of his supervised release conditions to be granted the license and work in this fashion and working in this fashion would help him reintegrate into society. If you have any further questions, feel free to contact me.
